OPENING KICK

- Following a 44-19 season-opening victory over Indiana State, Purdue Football remains at home for another non-conference matchup. The Boilermakers host Wake Forest from Ross-Ade Stadium at noon on FS1.
- This weekend, Purdue celebrates the 60th anniversary of the 1966 Boilermakers that went 9-2 and defeated USC 14-13 in the 1967 Rose Bowl Game. A team captain from that season who also intercepted the potential game-winning two-point conversion in that game, George Catavolos, will serve as Purdue's Honorary Captain for Saturday's game against Wake Forest.
- Barry Odom became just the ninth Purdue head coach to win his first two season openers, including the first since Jim Colletto (1991-92).
- In the season opener, Brock Brownfield became the first true freshman to ever start on the offensive line in the season opener for Purdue since freshmen were deemed eligible in 1972.
- Purdue holds a 21-18-3 record over current football members of the Atlantic Coast Conference, facing an ACC team for just the ninth time this century.
- Don Saunders' 35-yard interception return against Indiana State was Purdue's first pick-six since 2022 when Cory Trice Jr. took one to the house in a win over Indiana that clinched the Big Ten West Division title for the Boilermakers.
- Sixteen players made their first starts as Boilermakers in the season-opening victory over Indiana State.
- With six catches for 107 yards and a touchdown, FAU transfer Asaad Waseem became the first Boilermaker to eclipse 100 receiving yards in his Purdue debut since Charlie Jones in 2022 (vs. Penn State).
- The temperature for the season opener was 93 degrees at kickoff with the feel like temperature reaching 103 degrees. It marked Purdue's warmest night game since at least 2000.

PLAYER SPOTLIGHT

Fame Ijeboi led the ground attack for the Boilermakers against Indiana State, racking up 87 yards and a score on 11 carries. He graded out at 93.8 on Pro Football Focus (PFF), making him the highest-rated running back in the nation in the opening week.

ABOUT THE SERIES

- Purdue and Wake Forest will meet for the sixth time with a return game set for 2028.
- The two sides last met in 2003 in Winston-Salem when Purdue held on for a 16-10 win over No. 20 Wake Forest.
- The first meeting was in 1968 when No. 5 Purdue scored two touchdowns over the final seven minutes of the fourth quarter to rally to a 28-27 win. Leroy Keyes rushed for 214 yards on 25 carries, none more important than a two-yard scoring run with 1:16 to play. Keyes' performance still ranks eighth on Purdue's all-time chart.

OUR LAST MEETING

PURDUE 16, WAKE FOREST 10
SEPT. 13, 2003 | WINSTON-SALEM

- The Boilermakers went on the road and knocked off No. 20 Wake Forest with a 16-10 win.
- Kicker Ben Jones connected on boots of 27, 41 and 38 yards, while the Boilermakers' lone touchdown came in the second quarter on a seven-yard pass from Kyle Orton to Tyler Stubblefield.
- Purdue held Wake Forest to just 56 yards on the ground and 244 yards of total offense.
- The game came down to a 4th-and-1 at Purdue's 19-yard line with 1:05 in the fourth quarter when safety Stuart Schweigert stopped Wake Forest running back Chris Barclay (Purdue's running backs coach, 2017-22) at the line.

BOILER NOTES

YEAR 2 OF THE ODOM ERA

- Head coach Barry Odom is in his second season at the helm in West Lafayette in 2026.
- With an established culture and a deliberate approach in the transfer portal, the Boilermakers look to take a big step in 2026.
- Odom worked through a significant roster overhaul last season that featured 82 newcomers, including a nation-leading 54 transfers. Forty-six players joined the roster after spring practice concluded.
- Guiding one of the greatest resurgences in college football in 2023 and 2024 at UNLV, Barry Odom was named the new head football coach of the Purdue Boilermakers on December 8, 2024.
- Odom, 49, is the 38th head coach in the history of Purdue Football, coming to West Lafayette following what could be considered the most impressive gridiron campaign in UNLV's school history. The Rebels reached double-digit wins for only the third time in program history (1974, 1984), with both previous seasons predating the program's move up to Division I competition and the Mountain West Conference, respectively.
- Odom has a defensive background. A linebacker during his playing days at Missouri (1996-99), he has racked up seven seasons as a defensive coordinator over three stops: Memphis (2012-14), Missouri (2015) and Arkansas (2020-22).

ROSE BOWL BOILERMAKERS

- This weekend, Purdue celebrates the 60th anniversary of the 1966 Boilermakers that went 9-2 and appeared in the Rose Bowl Game for the first time in school history.
- The fifth-ranked Boilermakers defeated USC 14-13 in the game (Jan. 2, 1967). Fullback Perry Williams scored both touchdowns, defensive halfback George Catavolos intercepted the potential game-winning two-point conversion attempt with 2:28 remaining, and defensive halfback John Charles recorded 11 tackles and a key fumble recovery to be selected the game's Most Valuable Player.
- College Football Hall of Famer, Pro Football Hall of Famer Bob Griese ended his Purdue career with a three-year record of 22-7-1. That included two seasons as an All-American, including the 1966 campaign.
- The Boilermakers finished the season ranked No. 6 in the Coaches Poll and No. 7 in the AP Poll.

BOILERS VS. THE ACC

- Purdue is 21-18-3 all-time against current football members of the Atlantic Coast Conference
- Pitt is the only ACC member that the Boilermakers have played more than Wake Forest. Purdue holds a 4-3 record against the Panthers, while sporting a 4-1 series advantage over the Demon Deacons.
- Purdue is facing an ACC team for just the ninth time this century.

THE KID CAN KICK

- True freshman Jacobo Echeverria Lozano wasted little time putting his highly ranked right leg to use in week one against Indiana State, connecting on a field goal on the opening drive of the year.
- The freshman split the uprights a trio of times from 39, 27 and 25 yards for the most kicks in a game by a freshman at Purdue going back to 1995. They also tied for the ninth most by a freshman in a season opener nationally over that same span.
- The Pittsburgh, Pa., native is four field goals shy of cracking the Purdue freshman top three.
- Adding in his 5-for-5 on PATs, Echeverria Lozano's 14 points ranked fourth among all freshmen in week one, and he was the only kicker on the list. Nebraska's Jamal Rule, BYU's Legend Glasker and Syracuse's Shavane Anderson Jr. all scored three touchdowns.

HE'S YA BOY, IJEBOI

- Fame Ijeboi showed flashes in his Purdue debut when he rushed 11 times for 87 yards and a touchdown.
- The transfer from Minnesota impressively tied for sixth overall and was the highest-graded running back in offensive grade (93.8) with at least 25 offensive snaps, per PFF.
- Ijeboi paced the Purdue backfield by 55 yards. He added two receptions for 30 yards.
- The sophomore entered West Lafayette off a 441-yard campaign with the Golden Gophers in 2025.

WASEEM DOWN THE SEAM

- One of the newest Purdue wide receivers, FAU transfer Asaad Waseem made an immediate impact in his Boilermaker debut.
- Waseem found open space down the field, hauling in six receptions for 107 yards and one touchdown.
- The Apopka, Florida, native became the first Boilermaker to eclipse the 100-yard receiving mark since Arhmad Branch in last season's opening contest.
- Waseem's performance marked the first time a Boilermaker produced a 100-yard receiving game since All-American Charlie Jones accomplished the feat in 2022.

BOILER DEBUTS

- As part of the team victory to kick off the 2026 season, 38 Boilermakers appeared in their first game for the Old Gold and Black.
- That included 16 new Boilermakers earning starts: Fame Ijeboi, Chauncey Magwood, Jackson Berryman, Luca Puccinelli, Micah Banuelos, Brock Brownfield, Nuku Mafi, Jude McCoskey, Boaz Stanley, Curt Neal, Keyshawn Burgos, Mister Clark, Jojo Hayden, Jaden Mangham, Don Saunders, and John Slaughter.
- Eleven Boilers appeared in their first career game: Izaiah Wright, Brandon Kinsey, Quinn Rosenkranz, Jackson Berryman, Ar'Mari Towns, Brock Brownfield, Terrell Berryhill Jr., Rico Schrieber, Josiah Hope, Jett Goldsberry, Emoni Smith, and Jacobo Echeverria Lozano.

HOT OPENER

- Friday night's season opener was a scorcher, as the temperature reached 93 degrees at kickoff.
- The 93-degree kickoff temperature made it Purdue's warmest night game this century.
- Factoring in humidity, the RealFeel temperature cracked triple digits at 103 degrees.

TEAM CAPTAINS

- Ahead of the season opener, six Boilermakers were named team captains going into the 2026 campaign: quarterback Ryan Browne, linebacker Charles Correa, defensive back Hudauri Hines, offensive lineman Jude McCoskey, wide receiver De'Nylon Morrissette and defensive lineman Curt Neal.

BOILER NOTES

THE PURDUE WAY

- Head coach Barry Odom's programs have always been defined by a dedication to the team over the individual.
- Asked during his introductory press conference what the core principles of his program would be, Odom responded with the foundation of his career: hard, smart and tough. Playing football that way helped Odom's teams succeed in all three phases of the game.
- During the offseason, he introduced doing things "The Purdue Way", a team-first identity that embraces hard work and discomfort, trusting and following the plan and above all else, choosing the team over yourself.
- Throughout the summer, the culture set in. Of the 118 players who participated in the countless workouts, there was only one missed workout due to a canceled flight.
- Below are the 20 core principles of "The Purdue Way":

1. Toughness
2. Commitment
3. Unselfishness
4. Trust
5. Growth
6. Accountability
7. Responsibility
8. Self-Discipline
9. Effort
10. Be Coachable
11. Enthusiasm
12. Competitive Spirit
13. Habits
14. Belief
15. Hard / Smart / Tough
16. Preparation
17. Consistency
18. Leadership
19. Team - BOTTOM LINE
20. Attitude / No Excuses

WHAT CAN BROWNE DO FOR YOU

- Ryan Browne opened his 2026 campaign with his fourth career 300-yard passing game, going 23-of-29 for 317 yards and three passing touchdowns.
- It marked his fourth career 300-yard outing, pulling him into a tie with Elijah Sindelar for 11th on Purdue's all-time chart.
- Starting all 12 games and throwing for 2,153 yards with nine touchdowns, Browne became the first Boilermaker signal caller to start every game of a season since David Blough in 2016.
- Last year, Browne was one of three Purdue quarterbacks to post three 300-yard passing games in the opening five games of a season (Drew Brees - 1999, 2000 | Kyle Orton - 2004 | Curtis Painter - 2007) since 1995.
- Browne served as a backup for the Boilermakers in 2024, making one start, before spending the spring semester under Bill Belichick at North Carolina. He transferred back to Purdue during the spring portal window in 2025.
- Browne was also an instructor at the annual Manning Passing Academy and has spoken on the guidance Peyton Manning has given him this offseason.

LOOKING FOR RARE AIR

- With a win against Wake Forest, Barry Odom could do something for the first time in 109 years, start his first two seasons 2-0.
- Odom already is the ninth coach to win the season opener in each of his first two campaigns and the second to do it since World War II.
- Only Cleo O'Donnell (1916, 1917), Andy Smith (1913, 1914), David Balliet (1893, 1894) and Knowlton Ames (1891, 1892) started 2-0 in each of their first two seasons.

Purdue Coaches to Win First Two Season Openers

Cleo O'Donnell
1916 - DePauw (13-0), Wabash (28-7)
1917 - Franklin (54-0), DePauw (7-6)

Andy Smith
1913 - Wabash (26-0), at Northwestern (34-0)
1914 - Wabash (27-3), Western Reserve (26-0)

David Balliet
1893 - Indiana (64-0), Butler (96-0)
1894 - Light Artillery (6-4), at Butler (30-0)

Knowlton Ames
1892 - at Illinois (12-6), at Wabash (72-0)
1891 - at Wabash (44-0), DePauw (30-0)

HAWAIIAN HOSPITALITY

- Charles Correa has embraced his new role as the heart of the Boilermaker defense after arriving in West Lafayette a year ago alongside Coach Odom from UNLV. He was named a team captain ahead of the season.
- Starting all 12 games last season, Correa posted 96 tackles, 7.5 for-loss, 3.0 sacks and two passes defended to earn All-Big Ten honorable mention from the coaches and media.
- He topped the Boilermakers in tackles-for-loss and finished third in total tackles.
- His 73 stops in Big Ten action ranked eighth in the league.
- Correa reached double digits in tackles in five games throughout his first season as a Boilermaker, tying for third most at Purdue since 1995.
- Representing Purdue at the 2026 Big Ten Football Media Days, Correa displayed his typical Hawaiian hospitality by giving each media station a gift of chocolate covered macadamia nuts from his home island.
- Correa's family are mainstays at every football game with an average of 10 or more attendees at home and away contests.

BROWNE QB1 SEASON 2

- Browne is tied for the ninth-longest starting streak by a Purdue quarterback since 1970, alongside David Blough (twice) and Aidan O'Connell.
- Browne's 15 career starts as a Purdue signal caller already has him 19th in program history since 1960.

MADDEN GIVES BACK

- For the second straight year, defensive lineman CJ Madden dedicated his time off the field to the Hanna Center in Lafayette.
- Since its founding in 1923, the Hanna Center provides support to youth and senior citizens in the Greater Lafayette area by creating an " inclusive community where every individual – especially those from underserved backgrounds– is empowered to succeed."
- Madden has provided financial support and makes frequent trips to spend time with its members. During his time in West Lafayette, Madden has become a role model for kids at the Hanna Center.
- For his efforts, Madden was named to the AFCA Good Works Team and the Allstate Wuerffel Trophy Watch Lists.

TOUGH SCHEDULE

- The Boilermakers have played 11 ranked teams in the regular season since the start of the 2024 season, tying with Auburn and Mississippi State for fourth most nationally in that span.
- Purdue has faced six top-10 teams over the last two seasons, good for third most nationally. The five contests against top-five programs since 2024 is second only to Florida.

TOMMY McCLELLAND

VICE PRESIDENT - DIRECTOR OF INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS
Age: 44 Years Old
Alma Mater: Northwestern State '04
Wife: Jessica
Sons: Lawson and Grayson

Tommy McClelland was introduced as the new vice president and director of Intercollegiate Athletics on Aug. 6. An experienced leader with more than 20 years serving as an athletic director, McClelland has embraced the ever-changing landscape of college athletics through multimillion-dollar fundraising efforts.

After starting his career in various roles at Northwestern State and the Southland Conference, McClelland was named the athletic director at McNeese State at 26 years old, the youngest in the nation. He served in Lake Charles from 2007-13, before taking on the same role at Louisiana Tech from 2013-20. He was the deputy athletics director at Vanderbilt from 2020-23 prior to his three-year stint at Rice (2023-26)

McClelland will serve at the helm of a Purdue Athletics department that is home to a proud history of leadership, with just four previous athletics directors over the past eight decades: Mike Bobinski (2016-26), Morgan Burke (1993-2016), George King Jr. (1971-92) and Guy "Red" Mackey (1942-71).

BOILER NOTES

RETURN TO THE ROSE BOWL

- The Boilermakers are set to play their third game at the Rose Bowl on Sept. 19, against UCLA, previously going 1-1 in their two Rose Bowl Game appearances.
- The 11 p.m. ET scheduled kick will be the latest start for a Purdue game since an 11:05 p.m. ET open against Hawaii on Nov. 25, 2006.
- Purdue has played UCLA twice before on the West Coast, a 0-0 tie in 1959 and a 31-21 loss in 1979, both played at the LA Coliseum.
- Purdue made its debut at the Rose Bowl with a 14-13 win over USC on Jan. 2, 1967. A pair of touchdowns by sophomore fullback Perry Williams and a last-second interception of an attempted two-point conversion by senior defensive back George Catavolos secured the victory for the Boilermakers.
- The Boilermakers' most recent appearance was on New Year's Day in 2001, when No. 4 Washington outlasted Purdue 34-24 in the Rose Bowl Game. Drew Brees was 23-of-39 for 275 yards and two touchdowns.
- The Rose Bowl is 2,086 miles from Ross-Ade Stadium; the game against UCLA will be tied for the 17th-longest trip in program history.

WATCH LIST SEASON

- A trio of Boilermakers were honored during watch list season.
- Transfer running back Fame Ijeboi was tabbed to the Doak Walker Award Watch List. He spent two seasons at Minnesota. In 2025, he played in 11 games and rushed for 441 yards to go along with three touchdowns.
- CJ Madden garnered a pair of watch list selections with the Allstate Wuerffel Trophy and AFCA Good Works Team Watch Lists. Madden has partnered with the Hanna Center, a local community center to provide support for youth and senior citizens in the Greater Lafayette area.
- Back healthy for 2026, George Burhenn was named to the Comeback Player of the Year Watch List. After playing in 11 games as a true freshman in 2023, Burhenn saw action in four games in both 2024 and 2025. A two-time Academic All-Big Ten selection, he caught nine passes for 94 yards before an injury at Notre Dame ended his year early in 2025.

THE VICTORY BELL IS BACK

- Returning to Ross-Ade Stadium after a hiatus, the Purdue Victory Bell will sound again this year in West Lafayette.
- Originally purchased in 1877 to signal the start of classes and chapel, the Bell started its tradition of celebrating Purdue football victories in 1904 when the Boilermakers blanked rival Indiana 27-0 at Washington Park in Indianapolis, the original home of the Indianapolis Indians.
- The Bell was affixed to a four-wheel cart that would be towed to Ross-Ade Stadium for game days, and in addition to celebrating Purdue football victories, the Victory Bell was rung for Armistice Day in 1918, in 1945 for V-E and V-J days.
- The Bell will now reside over the entrance of Tiller Tunnel on a permanent structure overlooking the field.

FAMILIAR FACES ON STAFF

- The Boilermakers return with a significant amount of coaching continuity, bringing back seven position coaches. Of the three new additions, two are familiar faces in West Lafayette.
- Assistant head coach Cornell Ford took over the running backs room, a position he coached during Odom's tenure as the head coach at Missouri, after leading the wide receivers in 2025.
- Bilal Marshall was promoted to wide receivers coach during the offseason after returning to his alma mater as an offensive analyst in 2025. Marshall was a four-year letterwinner for the Boilermakers from 2012-16. He was previously the wide receivers coach at West Virginia.
- Kevin Kane was announced as the defensive coordinator after spending the 2025 season at Minnesota. Kane previously served as the defensive coordinator and inside linebackers coach at Purdue during the 2023 and 2024 seasons.
- Offensive line coach Zach Crabtree came to West Lafayette from Fresno State. Prior to his time with the Bulldogs, he was an assistant offensive line coach and graduate assistant alongside Josh Henson for three years at USC.

BUILDING A ROSTER

- Purdue dipped into the transfer portal during the offseason to welcome in 32 transfers and 22 freshmen, a significantly smaller overhaul from 2025.
- The 32 newcomers from the portal ranked 24th nationally per On3. Nineteen came from Power 4 programs, four from the Group of 5 and nine from non-FBS routes.
- Prior to the passage of the 5-for-5 ruling, Purdue entered the summer with just 12 players in their final year of eligibility.
- The Boilermakers returned several key contributors, including quarterback Ryan Browne and linebacker Charles Correa.
- Last year, Purdue dealt with significant roster turnover and had to build a team from scratch. The Boilermakers added 82 newcomers to the roster in 2025, a nation-leading 54 out of the transfer portal. The two transfer window periods also saw 46 players arrive over the summer.

UNCLE BOAZ

- Center Boaz Stanley joined the Boilermakers after playing 25 games over the last three seasons at Troy and South Carolina, including 21 starts.
- While having the most FBS experience among the linemen, his life off the field has made him the "old man" of the room.
- Stanley has been married to his wife, Payden, for over two years. On March 1, 2026, two days before the start of spring practices, they welcomed Charlotte "Lottie" Stanley into the world.
- Affectionately called "Uncle Boaz" by the offensive line, Stanley is called upon to deliver words of wisdom to the offensive line daily.
- Boaz's name comes from the Book of Ruth from the Bible.

BOILER NOTES

BY LAND, AIR AND RE(SEA)VING

- Ryan Browne threw for nine touchdowns, rushed for three scores and caught his first touchdown pass last season.
- Using a little trickery against Notre Dame in 2025, Devin Mockobee took the handoff from Browne before tossing the ball back to the quarterback in the flat. Wide open on the swing pass, Browne caught the first pass of his career and strolled into the end zone for a 14-yard touchdown.
- Browne was one of 20 players nationally and 10 quarterbacks to record a passing, rushing and receiving touchdown
- Since 1999, Browne is one of three Purdue QBs to record a receiving touchdown (David Blough - 2018 & Drew Brees - 1999, 2000).
- Browne is one of seven Boilermakers since 1965 to have a passing, receiving and rushing score in the same season.

BREES ENSHRINED IN CANTON

- Drew Brees, a Purdue Boilermaker and one of the greatest quarterbacks of all time, was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in early August. A first-ballot Hall of Famer, Brees joined Roger Craig, Larry Fitzgerald, Luke Kuechly and Adam Vinatieri in the Hall's class of 2026.
- A Super Bowl MVP and Walter Payton Man of the Year who retired in 2020, Brees set five NFL records throughout his career: completions (7,142), 5,000-yard passing seasons (5), consecutive games with a touchdown pass (54), most touchdown passes in a game (7) and the highest single-season completion percentage (74.4). He also still ranks second in NFL history in passing touchdowns (571) and passing yards (80,358), while ranking third in completion percentage (67.7) and fourth in wins (172).
- Brees was drafted by the San Diego Chargers and spent five years in Southern California, before joining the New Orleans Saints, where he rewrote the record book and led the organization to the Super Bowl XLIV in 2009.
- Brees' college career was one of the best in not just Purdue but Big Ten history, setting two NCAA records, 13 Big Ten Conference records and 19 Purdue records. On the Big Ten career lists, he still ranks first in completions (1,026) and passing yards (11,792) and second in passing attempts (1,678), passing touchdowns (90) and total offense (12,692).
- As a star in the classroom, he was the 2000 Academic All-American of the Year.
- Brees was inducted into the Leroy Keyes Purdue Athletics Hall of Fame in 2009 and the College Sports Communicators Academic All-America Hall of Fame in 2016.
- Brees became the fifth Boilermaker inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame and the first since Rod Woodson in 2009.

CONNECTING WITH THE CRADLE

- Ryan Browne's journey as a Boilermaker has intertwined with several members of the Cradle of Quarterbacks.
- Browne's first connection was with Gary Danielson (Purdue 1970-72) when he was playing for the Detroit Lions from 1976-84. Browne's uncle was hospitalized as a child, and Danielson would make frequent visits to see him in the hospital. Browne's grandmother still displays several of the signed Danielson footballs in her home.
- Ryan's father, Jim, played running back at Northwestern and Boston College before touring the NFL with the Lions, Dolphins and Raiders. Following his pro career, Jim founded a sports performance company and trained Danielson's son, Matt, before he committed to Northwestern.
- Ryan Browne and Danielson connected ahead of the 2025 matchup against USC during Danielson's final year in the booth for CBS.
- Browne has worked frequently with the resident Cradle member Mark Herrmann. The College Football Hall of Fame inductee now serves as the Director of Leadership and Alumni Engagement for the John Purdue Club, where Browne interned over the summer.
- Fresh off receiving his gold jacket and bronze bust in Canton, Drew Brees returned to West Lafayette for a day at the start of training camp, during which he spent time working with Browne during and after practice.
- Coach Odom set Browne up to talk with Brees and Kyle Orton throughout the summer.

GRADUATE BOILERS

- Eleven Boilermakers have earned their undergraduate degrees.

COACHING CONNECTIONS

- Barry Odom is the definition of a players' coach, as four of his former players are on his 2025 staff: Brandon Lee (general manager), Jack Lowary (defensive analyst), Ronnell Perkins (senior defensive analyst), Tre'vour Simms (offensive analyst), Jake Trump (defensive ends coach).
- Trump and defensive line coach Kelvin Green worked under Odom while he was the defensive coordinator at Arkansas. Trump was with Odom for all three seasons in Fayetteville (2020-22), while Green joined Odom's defensive staff for the 2022 campaign.
- Offensive coordinator Josh Henson worked alongside Odom at Missouri for three seasons when both were assistants for Gary Pinkel.
- Cornell Ford served as the running backs coach during Odom's tenure at Missouri and UNLV.

IN-STATE COMPETITION

- A schedule rarity, Purdue will play three opponents from the state of Indiana this season.
- After beginning the season against Indiana State, the Boilermakers will square off with Notre Dame for the Shillelagh Trophy on Sept. 26.
- Purdue will close the regular season with the 101st Old Oaken Bucket Game against Indiana on Nov. 28.
- It marks the third straight season Purdue will face three in-state foes and just the sixth time in the last 25 years.

BOILER NOTES

IN THE BOILER ROOM

- This season, the Boilermakers debuted a documentary series called "Boiler Room: Purdue Football All-Access" that takes fans inside the program during fall camp.
- Made in partnership with the Purdue for Life Foundation, the series provides a behind-the-scenes look of Purdue Football complete with interviews, mic'd up features and plenty of highlights.
- The series debuted on Aug. 26 on the Purdue Athletics YouTube page centering on the first few weeks of camp. The second episode will highlight what game prep is like within the program, while the third will show a game day at Ross-Ade Stadium.

CRADLE OF QUARTERBACKS

- The Cradle of Quarterbacks has evolved over the last 70 years as a defining feature of Purdue Football. Boilermakers have set numerous NCAA and Big Ten Conference records, many have been chosen as All-Americans and national awards winners or finalists.

- Fifteen former Purdue signal-callers have gone on to play in the National Football League. Drew Brees, Len Dawson and Bob Griese combined to win four Super Bowls. Purdue is one of just two universities that can claim three Super Bowl champs at the position. (Alabama)

- The reference to Cradle of Quarterbacks was added in the late 1970s when the poster was updated to include Mark Herrmann.

DEN OF DEFENSIVE ENDS

- Throughout its history, Purdue has produced many outstanding defensive ends, creating an institution unlike any other in college football - The Den of Defensive Ends.

- The tradition of The Den of Defensive Ends dates to the days of Leo Sugar and Lamar Lundy from the late 1940s to the mid-1950s and Keena Turner in the late 1970s, but it has flourished more recently. While Purdue's high-powered offense has made headlines under head coaches like Joe Tiller and Jeff Brohm, the Boilermakers' defense made a name for itself principally for the play of its ends.

BACK-TO-BACK OPENERS

- Barry Odom became the ninth Purdue head coach to win the season opener in each of their first two campaigns.
- He joined Jim Colletto's 1991 and 1992 starts as the second coach to do it since World War II, .
- Odom opened his tenure in West Lafayette with an explosive 31-0 win over Ball State last season. Ryan Browne threw for 311 yards and two touchdowns, while Charles Correa paced the defense with 11 tackles on the afternoon.
- The Boilermakers bounced off early struggles against Indiana State to pull away to a 44-19 win over the in-state foe. Ryan Browne threw for 317 yards and three scores, while Don Saunders housed a 35-yard interception in the second half.

ANOTHER SEASON OF PURDUE FOOTBALL

- Purdue kicked off its 139th season of football on Sept. 4 with a 44-19 win over Indiana State.
- The Boilermakers have a 81-52-6 mark in season openers, while going 95-39-4 in home openers. Purdue has won 25 of its last 29 home openers.
- Ross-Ade Stadium has been Purdue's home for 102 seasons, marking the 2026 campaign as the 103rd full season.
- Purdue closed out the 1924 season with its first game at Ross-Ade, a 26-7 Homecoming win over Indiana (Nov. 22, 1924).

THE QUARTERBACKS

- Darin Hinshaw is in his second year at Purdue guiding the signal callers. Hinshaw was instrumental in helping Ryan Browne connect with NFL greats to help his improvement during the offseason.
- Arriving back at Purdue after spring practice ended last year, Browne had a full offseason to establish a connection with his offensive line and receiving corps.
- Evans Chuba and Bennett Meredith battled throughout the spring and summer for the backup spot. Meredith started for Purdue at Northwestern in 2023, but he has not seen the field in two seasons.
- Freshman Corin Berry and redshirt freshman Garyt Odom both showed solid development during the offseason.

BOILER NOTES

THE RUNNING BACKS

- Assistant head coach Cornell Ford transitioned from the wide receivers to the running backs coach in 2026, a room he coached for four seasons at Missouri when Barry Odom was the head coach.
- The running backs room had significant change during the offseason with the graduation of Devin Mockobee, who was the first Boilermaker to lead the team in rushing four times and finished fourth in career rushing yards with 2,987 yards and 100-yard rushing games with nine.
- Antonio Harris is the lone returning running back after playing in all 12 games last year with two starts, while rushing for 305 yards and two scores on 69 carries.
- Fame Ijeboi was placed on the Doak Walker Award Watch List ahead of his first season in West Lafayette. He ran for 441 yards with two scores on 97 carries at Minnesota in 2025.
- Travis Terrell Jr. appeared in 26 games over two seasons at Jackson State, rushing for 1,067 yards and nine touchdowns. He was named an AP All-America Honorable Mention, FCS Football Central Third Team All-America and Phil Steele SWAC Special Teams Player and Freshman of the Year in 2024 after he averaged 30 yards per kickoff return with two scores.
- Jerrick Gibson arrived after 19 games in two seasons at Texas, appearing in the College Football Playoff in 2024.
- Freshman Izaiah Wright also showed flashes in training camp as the No. 2 ranked running back and No. 15 prospect in Michigan by Rivals.

THE WIDE RECEIVERS

- Former Purdue wide out Bilal Marshall was promoted from offensive analyst to wide receiver coach during the offseason after previously serving the role at West Virginia in 2024.
- Experienced upperclassmen De'Nylon Morrissette and Chuancey Magwood are back after missing 2025 with injuries. Jesse Watson and Corey Smith return after seeing significant snaps last season.
- Xavier Townsend was one of the top portal gets for the Boilermakers, arriving with nearly 40 games played over four seasons at UCF and Iowa State, totaling 1,960 all-purpose yards between 84 receptions, 37 rushes and 61 returns.
- Asaad Waseem had a breakout year at FAU in 2025 with 699 yards on 66 receptions with five touchdowns.
- First Team All-Ivy selection Bisi Owens made the jump to the Big Ten after three productive seasons at Penn. He amassed 1,664 yards and 11 touchdowns on 138 career catches over 30 career games in Philadelphia.
- Freshmen Brandon Kinsey and Jojo Johnson, along with sophomore Tra'Mar Harris, had productive fall camps and look poised to step onto the scene in 2026.

THE TIGHT ENDS

- Aside from junior George Burhenn, the tight end room is one of the youngest groups on the team this season.
- Burhenn has fought through injuries, playing four games each of the last two seasons, but he tallied 15 catches for 171 yards and a score over three years.
- Luca Puccinelli is the other returner who saw game action in 2025, making his first career receptions against Indiana.
- The Boilermakers brought in a pair of talented freshmen in Cooper McCutchan out of Cincinnati and Ar'Mari Towns from Selma, Ala. Both have vied for playing time throughout camp. Sophomore Jackson Berryman from Fort Worth, Texas, also showed flashes this summer.
- Kylan Fox, a 6-foot-4 junior transfer from UCF, was expected to make an impact alongside Burhenn, but an injury at the start of camp will see him miss the season.

THE OFFENSIVE LINE

- After one season at Fresno State, Zach Crabtree reunited with offensive coordinator Josh Henson in West Lafayette from their three seasons at USC. The Boilermakers entered the season with 18 offensive linemen on the roster.
- Joey Tanona is the lone returner who started 12 games on the line last year, while Ethan Trent made six starts and Jude McCoskey saw action in 11 contests in 2025.
- The Boilermakers brought in five transfers, including Boaz Stanley (21 career starts at South Carolina and Troy), Nuku Mafi (12 career starts at Oklahoma State) and Micah Banuelos (5 starts at USC), in addition to a group of talented freshmen.
- Freshmen Brock Brownfield (6-4, 300) and Rico Schrieber (6-8, 330) drew praise from the defensive line throughout camp.

THE DEFENSIVE LINE

- Kelvin Green leads an experienced group in his second year in West Lafayette. The Boilers' defensive line consists of five returners, three transfers and two true freshmen.
- Purdue added veterans from the portal in Rodney Lora (junior), Curt Neal (senior) and Wisdom Simms (senior), bringing 81 games of collegiate experience that includes 60 contests at the Power Four level.
- Stout inside linemen Ian Jeffries and TJ Lindsey are back for another year. Jeffries totaled 3.0 tackles-for-loss and 1.0 sacks, appearing in all 12 games, and Lindsey had a tackle-for-loss but was limited to just three games due to injury.
- The interior size is notable. Nine of the 10 linemen check in at 300 pounds or better, but their size does not cut down their agility and ability to attack.

THE DEFENSIVE ENDS

- A product of Barry Odom's Missouri defense, Jake Trump has set a culture for the defensive ends that "we don't have starters, we have standards." If a player can meet the standard of playing hard, he will get a chance to play.
- The Boilermakers have some serious depth and athleticism at defensive end.
- CJ Madden, Trey Smith and Breeon Ishmail appeared in all 12 games last season. Madden posted 23 tackles with 3.0 for-loss, Smith tallied 15 tackles and one for-loss and Ishmail recorded 23 stops and a pair behind the line.
- Georgia transfer Elo Modozie has shown off his athleticism during time at Army and Georgia with 50 career tackles, 9.5 for-loss and 7.5 sacks.
- Keyshawn Burgos is hard to miss at 6-foot-5, 285 pounds. He wrapped up four years at Virginia Tech, where he made 58 tackles, 7.0 for-loss and 2.5 sacks.
- Jeremy Lewis is a NJCAA Second Team All-American and a national champion at Iowa Western Community College. He recorded 41 tackles, 15.5 for-loss, nine sacks, four fumble recoveries, three forced fumbles and one interception.

THE LINEBACKERS

- Kevin Kane returned to West Lafayette to take over as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach following one season as a defensive analyst at Minnesota in 2025.
- Charles Correa returns to the heart of the defense. After earning All-Big Ten Honorable Mention last year with 96 total tackles, 7.5 for-loss and 3.0 sacks, the 6-foot-3, 230-pound native of Kuli'ou'ou, Hawaii, has emerged as one of the leaders of the team.
- A trio of transfers pushed for playing time this summer. Jojo Hayden came over to Purdue from Illinois, where he played in 21 games over the last two years with 34 stops. Anthony Speca made 17 appearances over his two seasons at Penn State. Tre Moore garnered All-Pioneer League honors in 2025 at San Diego with 61 stops, 8.5 for-loss, 6.0 sacks and three forced fumbles.
- Winston Berglund played in 11 games last year for the Boilermakers, while Hudson Miller started five times for Purdue in 2024, before playing the 2025 season at Toledo.

ALL-AMERICAN MARCHING BAND

Established in 1886, one year before the first football team at Purdue, the Purdue "All-American" Marching Band is an icon of the university, featuring over 125 years of tradition.

This world-renowned band performs at each home football game and travels to concerts and festivals around the world, including China, Ireland, and Colombia.

In 1921, Paul 'Spotts' Emrick decided that the "All-American" Marching Band needed something to set them apart from other bands. This sparked the idea to create the World's Largest Drum.

The shell of the Drum consists of three layers of maple wood pressed together in the same style as a traditional bass drum, weighing 565 pounds with its attached carriage.

Ross-Ade Stadium's elite playing surface throughout the season is possible thanks to the dedication of the Purdue Athletics Turf Management Ross-Ade Stadium Crew led by Sports Turf Crew Chief Brian Bornino and assisted by Brett Shoults, Steve Vonderheide, Nick Lievense, Jan Osting, Bill Foutch and 15 turf management students.

ROSS-ADE STADIUM HISTORY

• Ross-Ade Stadium was dedicated Nov. 22, 1924, ahead of its first game when Purdue hosted Indiana. The Boilermakers demolished their in-state foes in a 26-7 rout.

• The two men for whom the stadium is named, David E. Ross and George Ade, were instrumental in building a stadium that has served as the backdrop to Purdue lore over the last 102 seasons. Ross conceived of the idea for a new stadium to replace Stuart Field, a 5,000-seat stadium that hosted Purdue Football from 1892 to 1924 and was located where the Elliott Hall of Music stands today.

• The original capacity for Ross-Ade Stadium in 1924 was 18,500, including standing room tickets. Over the years and several renovations, the capacity grew to its largest at 69,200 in 1970.

• The largest crowd ever to see a game at Ross-Ade is 71,629 against Indiana on Nov. 22, 1980, when Purdue outlasted the Hoosiers, 24-23, on the shoulders of consensus All-Americans quarterback (and current John Purdue Club Director of Leadership and Alumni Engagement) Mark Herrmann and tight end Dave Young.

• Additional upgrades to the stadium included a new press box, luxury boxes and premium club areas in 2003 as a part of a $70 million project. Permanent lighting was installed in 2017 and a new sound system in 2018.

• The Tyler Trent (T^2) Student Gate was dedicated during the 2019 season in memory of Purdue superfan Tyler Trent who passed away at the age of 20 from osteosarcoma. The T^2 Gate was relocated to the south side of the stadium after the 2023 student section renovations were completed.

THE VICTORY BELL IS BACK

- Returning to Ross-Ade Stadium after a hiatus, the Purdue Victory Bell will sound again this year in West Lafayette.
- Originally purchased in 1877 to signal the start of classes and chapel, the Bell started its tradition of celebrating Purdue football victories in 1904 when the Boilermakers blanked rival Indiana 27-0 at Washington Park in Indianapolis, the original home of the Indianapolis Indians.
- The Bell was affixed to a four-wheel cart that would be towed to Ross-Ade Stadium for game days, and in addition to celebrating Purdue football victories, the Victory Bell was rung for Armistice Day in 1918, in 1945 for V-E and V-J days.
- The Bell will now reside over the entrance of Tiller Tunnel on a permanent structure overlooking the field.

TILLER TUNNEL

• The Boilermakers run onto Rohrman Field at Ross-Ade Stadium via the Tiller Tunnel. Completed in 2023, the tunnel provides direct access to the team back to the Kozuch Football Performance Center.

• The tunnel is named in honor of the Purdue Hall of Fame inductee Joe Tiller, the winningest coach in the history of Purdue Football. Tiller left an incredible legacy on the program and Boilermakers everywhere. The result was 10 bowl games, including the 2001 Rose Bowl, and a Big Ten Conference championship in 2000.

THE MEMORIAL TUNNEL

• Purdue was slated to face in-state foe Indiana in 1903 at a neutral site for the first time at Washington Park in Indianapolis.

• Purdue reserved two special charter trains in order to carry the football team and over 1,500 supporters to the state capital.

• Around 10 a.m. on Oct. 31, 1903, the lead special charter train carrying the team, members of the band and other university administrators collided with a northbound coal train. Seventeen people were killed, including 14 members of the football team.

• Purdue dedicated the southeast tunnel of Ross-Ade Stadium to the victims of the tragedy in 2003 to mark the centennial of the wreck. Memorial Gymnasium, now Felix Haas Hall housing the Department of Computer Science, was dedicated to the victims in 1909. It has 17 steps at the entrance, one for each victim.

AMERICA250 FLAGPOLE

• In the spring of 2026, Purdue installed a 160-foot-tall flagpole to fly a 30-by-50-foot American flag.

• In the spirit of America250, Purdue is celebrating the nation's semiquincentennial throughout 2026 by spotlighting innovative pursuits by Boilermakers past and present while preparing students for future innovative endeavors for the greater good of the nation.

HEAD COACH BARRY ODOM

Barry Odom is in his second season as the 38th head coach of Purdue Football.

Entering the 2026 campaign, Odom and his staff brought in a portal class that ranked Top 25 nationally and fourth in the Big Ten Conference.

In his first season in West Lafayette, Odom coached seven Boilermakers that earned all-conference accolades. That included Third Team All-Big Ten linebacker Mani Powell, who joined Odom from UNLV and became the first Boilermaker in history to lead the B1G in tackling in conference games. Placing an emphasis on special teams, punter Jack McCallister earned second team honors with the sixth-best single-season punting average in school history (43.2), while kicker Spencer Porath (Honorable Mention) set a new single-season program record for field goal percentage (88.2%) by making 15 of his 17 attempts.

Odom became the 38th head coach in program history on December 8, 2024, coming to West Lafayette following what could be considered the most impressive gridiron campaign in UNLV's school history. The Rebels reached double-digit wins for only the third time in program history (1974, 1984), with both previous seasons predating the program's move up to Division I competition and the Mountain West Conference, respectively. National recognition has followed, as the Rebels achieved a program-best No. 19 ranking in both the AP and Coaches polls, as well as their first-ever CFP ranking.

Odom has compiled an impressive list of accomplishments throughout his coaching career, which includes stints as a head coach in both the Southeastern Conference with Missouri (2016-19) and the Mountain West Conference with the Rebels (2023-24). UNLV totaled 19 wins during Odom's time guiding the Rebels, making it the winningest two-year stretch in the school's history as a Division I program. As a head coach, he has secured four postseason appearances in seven seasons, including two (2017 Texas Bowl, 2018 Liberty Bowl) bowl bids at Missouri.

For his head coaching career, Odom possesses a 46-43 overall record. His 19-8 mark with the Rebels bears significance in that the five seasons prior to his arrival (2017-22), UNLV won just 20 games. Impressively, his UNLV teams posted a 10-2 mark in true road games after the program only won eight total road games in the previous six seasons (8-25).

In just two seasons, Odom dramatically changed expectations in Las Vegas, with UNLV twice advancing to the MWC Championship Game after the program had not made a single appearance in the event prior to his arrival. Following Odom's first campaign in Las Vegas (9-5, 6-2 MWC), he was named the 2023 Mountain West Coach of the Year. He also earned distinction as the program's first-ever Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award finalist. The 2023 season culminated in an appearance in the Guaranteed Rate Bowl in Phoenix, Arizona.

Odom's adept tutelage saw three Rebels earn All-America status, and the program christened its first-ever First Team Academic All-American after the 2023 season. Back-to-back seasons of six First Team All-MWC honorees for the Rebels have occurred, including a school-record 12 combined recognitions between the conference's first and second teams in 2024. Incoming Rebels saw a boost in notoriety, as well, with Odom's 2025 signees ranking as the top class in the Mountain West.

Odom has also spent impactful tenures as a highly regarded defensive coordinator at Memphis (2012-14), Missouri (2015) and Arkansas (2020-22). For the Razorbacks, Odom served as associate head coach, defensive coordinator and safeties coach. His 2021 defense turned heads, as it allowed just 22.9 points per game – 12 points fewer per game than in 2020 and the fewest for an Arkansas defense since 2014. Focusing on the run defense, the unit evolved to allow just 153.9 yards per game, the fewest for Arkansas since 2015. Under Odom's watch, Arkansas' 18 takeaways during the 2020 campaign ranked 25th nationally. The Razorbacks' 13 interceptions were second most in the SEC and 13th most in the FBS.

During his first defensive coordinator job at Memphis in 2012, he transformed the Tigers into a defensive power. In 2014, his defense ranked fifth nationally in scoring defense (17.1 points per game) and 22nd nationally in total defense (343.3 yards per game) to help the Tigers go 10-3. That marked an incredible turnaround for a Memphis team that ranked 117th in total defense prior to his arrival. The program improved defensively each year under Odom, rising from 50th nationally in total defense in 2012 to 39th in 2013 to 22nd in his final year.

Before moving to Fayetteville, Odom spent four seasons as Missouri's head coach, taking two of his teams to bowl games and finishing at .500 or better three times en route to building an overall record of 25-25 from 2016-19. His 2018 Missouri squad finished the regular season ranked 23rd in the College Football Playoff poll.

Regarded among the coaching fraternity for his steadfast pathway to the top, Odom was promoted to the head coaching role at Missouri following the retirement of Gary Pinkel, whom he worked for in numerous capacities while on staff at Missouri in two separate stints. From 2003-11, Odom served as graduate assistant, director of recruiting, director of football operations and safeties coach for the Tigers. Upon returning from his three seasons at Memphis, Odom served as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach in 2015 before his promotion ahead of the 2016 season.

Odom was born in Lawton, Oklahoma, and raised in Maysville, Oklahoma. He was a four-year letterwinner at linebacker for Missouri from 1996-99, helping the school make two bowl trips and serving as team captain during his senior season. He ended his MU career ranked in the program's all-time top 10 with 362 tackles.

Odom graduated from Missouri in 1999 with a bachelor's degree in education and earned his master's in education from the school in 2004. He and his wife, Tia, have two sons, JT and Garyt, and a daughter, Anna Lockwood.

RECAP

The Purdue football team opened its season with a runaway 44-19 victory over Indiana State at Ross-Ade Stadium.

The Boilermakers amassed 523 yards of offense, finding the end zone four times while adding three field goals and a pick-six. Junior quarterback Ryan Browne completed 23-of-29 passes for 317 yards and three touchdowns, recording the fourth 300-yard passing game of his career.

It marked Purdue's first 500-yard offensive performance since Browne's first career start at Illinois on Oct. 12, 2024.

After building a 16-6 halftime lead, the Boilermakers found the end zone on each of their first three drives of the second half before Browne was pulled with the game firmly in hand.

Senior defensive back Don Saunders added a 35-yard interception return for a touchdown, giving Purdue its first pick-six since 2022.

A crowd of 49,019 braved a 93-degree on-field temperature, making it Purdue's hottest recorded night game at Ross-Ade Stadium since at least 2000.

With the victory, head coach Barry Odom became the first Purdue head coach to win his first two season openers since Jim Colletto in 1991-92. The 44 points were also the most of the Odom era.

Asaad Waseem posted 107 yards and a touchdown on six catches, becoming the first Purdue receiver to eclipse 100 yards in a game since Arhmad Branch in the 2025 season opener.

NOTES TO KNOW

- Five Boilermakers scored touchdowns for the first time in their Purdue careers.
- The Boilermaker offense produced 523 yards of total offense, their first time eclipsing the 500-yard mark since 2024 at Illinois in Ryan Browne's first career start.
- 44 points were the most in the Barry Odom era to this point.
- Quarterback Ryan Browne moved into a tie with Elijah Sindelar for 11th on the 300-yard passing chart with his fourth game hitting the milestone.
- Asaad Waseem is the first 100-yard receiver for Purdue since Arhmad Branch in last year's season opener vs. Ball State. He became the first Boilermaker to eclipse 100 receiving yards in his Purdue debut since Charlie Jones vs. Penn State in 2022.
- Left guard Brock Brownfield became the first Purdue true freshman to start on the line in a season opener in school history.
- The Boilermaker defense held Indiana State running backs to 10 yards rushing on 11 carries.
- Don Saunders picked off QB Brady Allen on the second play of the fourth quarter and returned it for his first career touchdown. It was Purdue's first pick-six since Cory Trice at Indiana on Nov 6, 2022.
- True freshman kicker Jacobo Echeverria Lozano went three-for-three on field goals in his first collegiate game. His three field goals marked the most by a Boilermaker true freshman since at least 1995. Echeverria Lozano also went five-for-five on PAT attempts.
