LSU And Ole Miss To Meet As Top 10 Teams For First Time Since 1962

LSU (2-0, 0-0 SEC) opens SEC play on Saturday when the Tigers travel to face Ole Miss (2-0, 0-0 SEC) in the much-anticipated return to Oxford for Lane Kiffin. Kickoff is scheduled for 6:30 p.m. CT and will be televised on ABC with Chris Fowler (pxp), Kirk Herbstreit (analyst), Holly Rowe (sideline) and Laura Rutledge (sideline) on the call. College GameDay will also be on hand for the weekend's premier national game. LSU enters the game ranked No. 7 in both polls, while Ole Miss is ranked No. 8 (AP) and No. 9 (Coaches). It's the first time LSU and Ole Miss meet a Top 10 teams since 1962 when the Tigers were No. 4 and Ole Miss No. 6 (Ole Miss won, 15-7, in Tiger Stadium). Kiffin, 2-0 at LSU, coached the Rebels for six years (2020-25) before taking over as the Tigers' head coach on Nov. 30, 2025. LSU improved to 2-0 with a 45-14 win over Louisiana Tech last week, while Ole Miss defeated Charlotte, 41-9. Last year, Ole Miss beat the Tigers, 24-19, in Oxford. It's the first time in the 114-game series that LSU will travel to Oxford in consecutive seasons. LSU goes into the Ole Miss game averaging 48.0 points and 586.0 total yards per game (228.0 rushing, 358.0 passing). Defensively, the Tigers lead the nation in total defense (142.0) and sacks (12), while ranking No. 2 in rush defense (18.0) and No. 12 in pass defense (124.0). QB Sam Leavitt has accounted for 7 TDs (5 rushing, 2 passing) and ranks No. 2 in the SEC in total offense (354.5). Leavitt has rushed for 135 yards and completed 41-of-66 passes for 574 yards, 2 TDs and 4 interceptions. Dilin Jones leads LSU in rushing with 179 yards and 2 TDs, while Winnie Watkins leads team in receiving (12-153-1 TD). LBs TJ Dottery (14 tackles) and Whit Weeks (13) lead LSU in tackles, while Edge Princewill Umanmielen leads the nation sacks (5) and tackles for loss (6.5).

LSU Coach Lane Kiffin

Lane Kiffin, who guided Ole Miss to four 10-win seasons and 55 total victories during a 6-year stretch from 2020-2025, is in his first season at LSU. Kiffin, now in his 15th season as a collegiate head coach, is 118-53 and includes head coaching stops at Tennessee (2009), Southern Cal (2010-2013), Florida Atlantic (2017-19), and Ole Miss (2020-2025). His 55 wins at Ole Miss were the most over a 6-year period at the school since 1957-62 when the Rebels won 57 games. His 52 victories since the 2021 season rank behind Georgia (67) and Alabama (58) in the SEC during that span. At Ole Miss, Kiffin directed the Rebels to an 11-1 regular season mark and a berth in the College Football Playoffs in 2025. The 11 wins were the most during the regular season in Ole Miss history and it also marked the first time in program history the Rebels reached double-digit wins in three consecutive seasons. Since arriving at LSU, Kiffin assembled the nation's No. 1 transfer portal class, a group that includes the No. 1 quarterback (Sam Leavitt), No. 1 offensive tackle (Jordan Seaton) and the No. 1 edge rusher (Princewill Umanmielen). Kiffin won national titles as an assistant coach at Southern Cal (twice) and Alabama (once) and he was part of offensive staffs that have produced four Heisman Trophy winners – QB Carson Palmer (USC, 2002), QB Matt Leinert (USC, 2004), RB Reggie Bush (USC, 2005) and RB Derrick Henry (Alabama, 2015).

QUICK NOTES

- LSU's offense has racked up 1,172 yards (456 rushing, 716 passing) in 2 games. It's the most yards of offense for an LSU team over first 2 games of season dating back to 1937.
- LSU's defense has given up only 285 total yards (37 rushing, 247 passing), the fourth-fewest on record dating back to 1937. Others: 97 in 1937, 244 in 1958, 245 in 1979.
- LSU leads the nation in total defense (142.0), sacks (12) and opponent first downs (16) and ranks No. 2 in rushing yards (18.0) and third-down conversion rate (4-of-27 for 14.8 pct.).
- Offensively, LSU ranks No. 3 in total offense (586.0) and No. 4 in passing offense (358.0).
- On 28 possessions by the opposition, LSU has forced 13 3-and-outs, had the opponent punt 16 times. LSU has allowed possessions of 5 or more plays only 6 times with 22 of the 28 possessions being 4 plays or fewer (11 by Clemson, 11 by Louisiana Tech).
- The Tiger defense has allowed the opponent to penetrate LSU territory just 3 times in 26 possessions that started on the minus-50. Of the 103 offensive snaps by the opposition, only 14 have come in LSU territory (6 by Clemson, 8 by Louisiana Tech). Six of the 14 snaps came on drives that started on LSU's side of the field due to a turnover.

- For just the 6th time in school history, LSU's offense accounted for 300-plus rushing yards (309) and passing yards (335) in a game against Clemson in the season-opener. The last time it happened came in the win over Florida in 2023 (329 rushing, 372 passing).
- C Braelin Moore was awarded No. 18 for the Tigers becoming only the second offensive lineman (C Lloyd Cushenberry in 2019) in school history to be presented with the jersey since the tradition started in 2003. Moore will continue to wear No. 61 on gamedays and will have a No. 18 patch on his jersey.
- LB Whit Weeks and TE Trey'Dez Green will wear No. 7 for LSU this year. It's only the second time since the tradition started in 2008 with Patrick Peterson that two players have been awarded the No. 7 jersey (OT Will Campbell and LB Harold Perkins in 2024).
- LSU climbed to No. 7 in both national polls this week following the win over Louisiana Tech. LSU has broken into the Top 10 of the national polls in eight of the last nine seasons.

* - Denotes Game As Head Coach

Lane Kiffin, an elite offensive mind who built Ole Miss into a national powerhouse winning 55 games during his six years in Oxford, became LSU's 37th football coach on Nov. 30, 2025.

Kiffin joined LSU - a program with four national titles to its credit, including three since 2003 - after guiding Ole Miss to double-digit wins four times in six years, including an 11-1 regular season mark in 2025. Prior to his arrival in 2020, Ole Miss had only two 10-win seasons since 1972.

Kiffin made an immediate impact at LSU, signing the nation's No. 1-rated transfer portal class along with a Top 10 high school signing class. In addition, his arrival at LSU resulted in over 40,000 new requests for season tickets along with unprecedented corporate sponsorship dollars.

Kiffin joins the Tigers with a college head coaching career that spans 14 seasons and includes a 116-53 overall record. He's had seven 10-win seasons and led teams to nine bowl appearances. His teams have been ranked in the final AP Top 25 poll five times.

Previous head coaching stops for Kiffin include Tennessee (2009), Southern Cal (2010-13), and Florida Atlantic (2017-19). He also served as the head coach of the NFL's Oakland Raiders from 2007-08.

In six seasons in Oxford, Kiffin led the Rebels to unprecedented heights posting a 55-19 mark, leading teams to six consecutive bowl games (including three wins and two New Year's Six appearances), four 10-win seasons (including the first ever 11-win season in 2023, the first two 10-win regular seasons in program history in 2021 and 2023, and the first 11-win regular-season in program history in 2025), and several of the most statistically significant campaigns in Ole Miss football history.

The 55 wins are the most in a six-year period in Ole Miss history since the Rebels won 57 games from 1957-62, while his 50 victories since 2021 rank behind only Georgia and Alabama as the most in the SEC during that span.

Kiffin's Rebel teams have broken into the national top-10 in at least one poll in each of the last five seasons since 2021, the first such streak at Ole Miss since Rebel legend John Vaught's teams from 1960-64. Ole Miss has played 38 consecutive games as a Top 25 team and they have been ranked in 62 of its 74 games in six years under Kiffin. Ole Miss is currently ranked No. 7 in the College Football Playoff Rankings.

A year ago, Kiffin directed Ole Miss to an 11-1 regular season mark, the first time in school history the Rebels reached double-digit wins three consecutive seasons. The Rebels also won 11 regular-season games for the first time in program history with Top 25 victories over No. 4 LSU and No. 13 Oklahoma, running his wins over ranked opponents since his arrival to 10. In 2025, Kiffin became the first Ole Miss coach since Billy Brewer, who did it over 11 years, to beat LSU three times.

Ole Miss led the SEC in total offense (489.7) and featured the top running back in the league in Kewan Lacy, who rushed for 1,567 yards and ranked No. 2 in the nation with 24 rushing touchdowns. With a first-time starter at quarterback, the Rebels averaged over 37 points per game in their 12 games under Kiffin in 2025.

Considered an offensive mastermind, Kiffin's Ole Miss squad is the only team in the SEC to rank among the Top 5 in the league in both scoring offense and total yards since 2020. The Rebels led the SEC in total offense four times in six years under Kiffin and they averaged 33 points or more each year, including league-best 38.6 points per game in 2024.

Kiffin's accomplishments at Ole Miss have been due in part to his recruiting prowess, the ability to identify talent and roster management. He signed four straight top-six transfer classes, including the No.1 class in 2024, while adding five consecutive Top 25 high school signing classes. Kiffin has sent 23 Ole Miss players to the NFL Draft, including eight in the 2025, the most for the school since the draft was reduced to seven rounds in 1994.

Kiffin led the Rebels to a 10-3 mark in 2024, setting school records for total yards (6,845), yards per play (7.3), passing yards (4,561), passing yards per game (350.8), sacks (52) and tackles for loss (120). The marquee win for the Rebels was a 28-10 win over No. 2 Georgia in Oxford.

The 2024 campaign was highlighted by first-round NFL Draft pick quarterback Jaxon Dart, who led the nation in total offense while dismantling several all-time Rebel records, and the stifling Ole Miss defense, which led the nation in both sacks and tackles for loss.

Defensive tackle Walter Nolen earned consensus All-America honors and was selected in the first round of the 2025 NFL Draft.

Kiffin led the 2023 Rebels to the best season in Ole Miss history in terms of wins at the time, notching an 11-2 overall record capped by a 38-25 Peach Bowl victory over Penn State.

Kiffin guided the Rebels to a 10-3 record in 2021, the first 10-win regular season in school history. The Rebels finished the year ranked No. 11 in both the AP and AFCA Coaches Poll, their highest final ranking since 2016.

The offensive explosion by the Rebels came as no surprise, as Kiffin has shown a propensity in helping turn programs around. In his first seasons at FAU, USC and Tennessee, Kiffin's team improved in win differential (+3.33), scoring (+10.2), passing (+34.5 ypg) and rushing (+51.3 ypg).

In December 2016, Kiffin took over an FAU program that had won a total of nine combined games over the previous three seasons. Kiffin proceeded to take the Owls to new heights over his three years, including two Conference USA titles and two 10-win seasons.

Kiffin joined the FAU Owls after three seasons (2014-16) at Alabama, where he served as the Tide's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach under head coach Nick Saban. He was a finalist for the Frank Broyles Award in 2014, which goes to the country's best assistant coach.

In 2016, he coached Jalen Hurts to SEC Offensive Player of the Year honors after leading the Crimson Tide to a 13-1 mark, the league title and appearance in the national championship game as a true freshman.

In 2015, Kiffin oversaw the development of quarterback Jake Coker, who finished his career 14-0 as a starter at Alabama, along with running back Derrick Henry, who rushed for 2,219 yards and 23 touchdowns on his way to claiming the Heisman Trophy.

Kiffin joined the Crimson Tide in 2014 and quickly developed first-time starter Blake Sims into a second-team All-SEC selection when he threw for a then-school record 3,487 yards.

Prior to joining Saban's staff at Alabama, Kiffin spent the three-plus previous seasons as the head coach at Southern Cal, posting a 28-15 mark. In 2012, wide receiver Marquise Lee was a unanimous first-team All-American and won the Biletnikoff Award while also being named the Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Year. Quarterback Matt Barkley, who won the Wuerffel Trophy, set conference records for passing yards and passing touchdowns.

Kiffin led the Trojans to a 10-2 record in 2011 and No. 6 final ranking in the AP Poll. The team won the Pac-12 South with a 7-2 mark and featured a 3,500-yard passer, a pair of 1,000-yard receivers and a 1,000-yard rusher. Three Trojans earned First-Team All-America honors (Matt Kalil, Robert Woods and T.J. McDonald).

In his first year as the head coach at USC, Kiffin led the Trojans to an 8-5 record.

Prior to his tenure at Southern Cal, Kiffin served as the head coach at Tennessee in 2009. He led the Volunteers to a second-place finish in the SEC East and an appearance in the Chick-fil-A Bowl. Under Kiffin, Tennessee's offense went from 17.3 to 29.3 points per game, while going from 268.8 to 383.5 total yards a contest.

Kiffin joined Tennessee after serving as head coach of the NFL's Oakland Raiders from 2007-08. At 31, he was the youngest head coach in the NFL's modern era.

Prior to his first head coaching job, Kiffin spent six years (2001-06) as an assistant coach for Pete Carroll at Southern California, including two years as the offensive coordinator (2005-06). He helped the Trojans capture two national championships and post a 65-12 record. As passing game coordinator in 2004, quarterback Matt Leinart won the Heisman Trophy when he passed for 3,322 yards and 33 touchdowns.

He took over as USC's offensive coordinator in 2005 and in two years at that position, the Trojans averaged 49.1 points and 579.8 yards per game.

Throughout Kiffin's college coaching career, his offensive prowess saw exceptional results from an individual and team standpoint. Kiffin has mentored four Heisman Trophy winners (3 at USC, 1 at Alabama) including QBs Carson Palmer and Matt Leinart and RBs Reggie Bush and Derrick Henry. Kiffin's team success yielded three national championships (2 at USC under Pete Carroll, 1 at Alabama under Nick Saban).

Kiffin graduated from Fresno State in 1998 with a degree in recreational and leisure services after playing quarterback for three seasons (1994-96) for the Bulldogs. He began his coaching career as a student assistant at Fresno State under Pat Hill in 1997 and 1998. He moved on to Colorado State in 1999 as a graduate assistant. He spent the 2000 season as defensive quality control assistant with the Jacksonville Jaguars under Tom Coughlin.

Kiffin attended Bloomington Jefferson High in Bloomington, Minnesota, where he played football, basketball and baseball. He has two daughters, Landry and Presley, and one son, Knox.

LSU Travels To Ole Miss For First Top 10 Matchup Between Teams Since 1962

No. 7/7 LSU (2-0, 0-0 SEC) will hit the road for the first time in 2026 for a Top 10 showdown with No. 8/9 Ole Miss Rebels (2-0, 0-0 SEC) on Saturday at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium in Oxford. The matchup will be televised nationally on ABC with Chris Fowler (pxp), Kirk Herbstreit (analyst), Holly Rowe (reporter) and Laura Rutledge (reporter) on the call. It's the fourth consecutive year both teams go into the game ranked in the Top 25, but the first time since 1962 each team is ranked in the Top 10. LSU and Ole Miss are meeting for the 115th time since the series began in 1894. LSU is 66-44-4 against the Rebels all-time and the series is tied 11-11-1 when both teams meet in Oxford. LSU is coming off a second-straight victory after posting a 45-14 win against Louisiana Tech on Sept. 12. LSU coach Lane Kiffin will face off against the program he coached for six seasons to 55 wins, including four seasons of 10-plus wins. It will mark the second time Kiffin has led a team against Ole Miss. In 2009, Kiffin and his Tennessee squad dropped a 42-17 decision in Oxford.

Kiffin Makes Return To Ole Miss

Lane Kiffin becomes only the third coach in LSU football history to face a team he previously coached when the Tigers travel to face Ole Miss on Saturday. Kiffin spent 6 years at Ole Miss, leading the Rebels to the best stretch in program history with 55 wins, including 4 10-win seasons. Kiffin joins Gerry DiNardo (Vanderbilt) and Ed Orgeron (Ole Miss) as the only coaches in LSU history to return as the Tiger head coach to face his previous school. Kiffin, however, will be the first do it in the year following his departure from the previous school. DiNardo – who coached Vanderbilt from 1991-94, faced the Commodores in 1996 in Tiger Stadium, winning 35-0, and then returned to Nashville the following year, posting a 7-6 victory. Orgeron, who coached at Ole Miss from 2005-2007, faced the Rebels 6 times as LSU's head coach from 2016-21, winning five of the six games. Here's how LSU coaches how fared against their former team:

Coach	Year	Results vs. Previous School	Location
Gerry DiNardo	1996	def. Vanderbilt, 35-0	Tiger Stadium
Gerry DiNardo	1997	def. Vanderbilt, 7-6	Nashville
Ed Orgeron	2016	def. Ole Miss, 38-21	Tiger Stadium
Ed Orgeron	2017	def. Ole Miss, 40-24	Oxford
Ed Orgeron	2018	def. Ole Miss, 45-16	Tiger Stadium
Ed Orgeron	2019	def. Ole Miss, 58-37	Oxford
Ed Orgeron	2020	def. Ole Miss, 53-38	Tiger Stadium
Ed Orgeron	2021	lost Ole Miss, 31-17	Oxford

Tigers and Rebels To Meet as Undefeated and Untied Foes For Second Time Since 1959

LSU and Ole Miss will meet as unbeaten and untied foes for the second time since 1959 when then-No. 1 ranked and 7-0 LSU beat No. 3 and 6-0 Ole Miss, 7-3, Halloween Night in Tiger Stadium. The win was highlighted by Billy Cannon's 89-yard punt return that helped propel the running back to the Heisman Trophy that year, the first in program history. The victory over Ole Miss in 1959 was the 19th straight for the Tigers. This year, LSU enters the contest ranked No. 7/7 and with a 2-0 overall mark. The Rebels are ranked No. 8/9 and stand at 2-0 overall. LSU and Ole Miss will open conference play as opponents for the fourth time since 1940. The Tigers and Rebels have only opened conference play against one another between 1938-40.

LSU and Ole Miss To Meet As Top 10 Teams For First Time Since 1962; Sixth Time Ever

LSU and Ole Miss will meet as Top 10 teams for the first time since 1962, and just the sixth time ever, when they square off Saturday night in Oxford. LSU is 3-2 against Ole Miss when meeting as Top 10 foes. Here's a look at the previous Top 10 matchups between LSU and Ole Miss:

LSU To Play At Ole Miss in Consecutive Years For First Time

LSU will play in Oxford for consecutive seasons for the first time in the history of the 114-game series. The back-to-back in Oxford scheduling came as a result of the league shifting to a 9-game SEC schedule. LSU did play Ole Miss in Jackson, Miss, in back-to-back seasons in 1991 and 1992, again due to a league scheduling change with the addition of Arkansas and South Carolina to the SEC. The last time LSU went on the road in consecutive years against the same opponent came in 2019 and 2020 when the Tigers faced Vanderbilt in Nashville. This year, LSU hosts Texas A&M in consecutive years this season in Tiger Stadium.

LSU-Ole Miss To Play for Magnolia Bowl Trophy

Established in 2008 after an agreement between the student governments at both schools, LSU and Ole Miss have squared off each year since then to play for the Magnolia Bowl Trophy. LSU is 11-7 against the Rebels since the establishment of the trophy. Last year, Ole Miss posted a 24-19 win over LSU in Vaught-Hemingway Stadium. LSU won the previous meeting in Baton Rouge, 29-26, in an overtime thriller of the 2024 season.

NOTEBOOK

LSU-Ole Miss Series: LSU leads 66-44-4

The home team has won 12 of the last 14 meetings in the series, which includes LSU's 29-26 overtime win over the Rebels in Tiger Stadium in 2024. Ole Miss won the most recent meeting at Oxford, 24-19. Overall, LSU has won seven of the last 10 against the Rebels and holds a 66-44-4 advantage in the series that dates back to 1894. Saturday's contest will mark only the seventh time the teams have met during the month of September. Previously, the teams met in September in 1938-39-40 and then again in 2018, 2023 and 2025. September 19 signals the earliest date LSU and Ole Miss have played in football. The following is a look at some of the memorable LSU-Ole Miss moments in the 114-game series:

Year	Results	Location
1947	Ole Miss won, 20-18	Tiger Stadium

LSU's Y.A Tittle intercepted a pass and was well on his way to returning it for a touchdown when an Ole Miss player – attempting to tackle Tittle – grabbed his pants buckle causing his pants to fall down. Tittle continued to run – pants still falling down below his knees – but was tackled shy of the endzone. LSU failed to score and Ole Miss went on to win the game and the SEC title that year. Tittle later said of the play, “We lost and Ole Miss went to the Sugar Bowl instead of us. Losing my pants kept us out of the Sugar Bowl. Imagine, I got tackled by my own pants.”

1959	LSU won, 7-3	Tiger Stadium

Billy Cannon returns punt 89-yards in 4Q for TD, breaking 7 tackles along the way. Lost in the dramatics of Cannon's run was the goal line stand by the LSU defense that kept Ole Miss out of the endzone late in the fourth quarter, securing the victory for the Tigers.

LSU ran 2 plays in 4 seconds, the second tied the game when Bert Jones hit Brad Davis with a TD pass to tie the game at 16-16. Rusty Jackson's PAT gave the Tigers one of the most improbable wins in school history. With 4 seconds left on the clock, Jones' pass to Jimmy LeDoux fell incomplete sending the Ole Miss sidelines into a celebration as they thought the game was over. Somehow, there remained 1-second on the game clock setting up the winning TD pass from Jones to Davis. A sign put up along the highway on the Louisiana-Mississippi border after the game read, “You are now entering Louisiana, please set your clocks back four seconds.”

2003	LSU won, 17-14	Oxford

A record-breaking crowd of 62,552 packed Vaught-Hemingway Stadium for the most anticipated game ever played in Oxford. The game featured the top 2 teams in the SEC Western Division with the winner needing only a victory in the season-finale to secure a berth in the league's title game. LSU's defense held Eli Manning and the Ole Miss offense in check for most of the day, limiting the Rebels to 20 rushing yards and just 1 offensive TD. Down 17-14, Ole Miss still had a chance with just over 2 minutes left in the fourth quarter but three straight incompletions followed by a fourth-down play when Manning's foot was stepped on by an offensive lineman as he dropped back for a pass resulting in a 5-yard loss and ending any hopes of a comeback by the Rebels.

2024	LSU won, 29-26 (OT)	Tiger Stadium

Garrett Nussmeier connected with Kyren Lacy on a 25-yard TD pass on LSU's first play in overtime to lift the Tigers to a 29-26 win over Ole Miss in Tiger Stadium. Fans emptied onto the field in Death Valley seconds after the catch as the Tigers knocked off the ninth-ranked Rebels. LSU held Ole Miss' high-powered offense to only 3 field goals in the second half and overtime. LSU never led in the game until the final play of the contest.

Last 3 LSU-Ole Miss Games Decided By Total of 14 Points

The past 3 LSU-Ole Miss games have been decided by a total of 14 points and all have been one possession games. LSU won on the last play of the game (first play of LSU's OT possession), 29-26, in Tiger Stadium in 2024. Last year, Ole Miss won, 24-19, in Oxford and had a 6-point win (55-49) in Oxford in 2023.

LSU In The Polls

LSU moved up one spot to No. 7 in both national polls following the 45-14 win over Louisiana Tech on Saturday. LSU jumped five spots from No. 13 to No. 8 in the AFCA Coaches Poll and moved up three positions from No. 11 to No. 8 in the Associated Press Top 25 after Week One's 51-10 over Clemson. The No. 7 national ranking marks the eighth time in the past nine years, dating back to 2018, LSU has broken into the Top 10 at some point during the season. Overall, LSU won its 23rd straight game against non-conference opponents in Death Valley, while Lane Kiffin beat a non-conference opponent for the 23rd consecutive time.

Last Time Out: LSU 45, Louisiana Tech 14

Eighth-ranked LSU blitzed Louisiana Tech with 28 unanswered points in the second half, as the Tigers recorded a 45-14 win over the Bulldogs in Tiger Stadium. LSU improved to 2-0 on the season, while Louisiana Tech dropped to 1-1. The Tigers won their 40th straight game against an in-state opponent. The LSU defense was dominant for the second consecutive week, limiting Louisiana Tech to just 139 total yards and eight first downs. The Bulldogs finished with minus-4 total rushing yards. The Tigers extended their 10-7 halftime lead to 13-7 early in the third quarter, when Scott Starzyk connected on a 25-yard field goal. Quarterback Sam Leavitt then culminated a 60-yard scoring drive with a nine-yard TD run, giving the Tigers a 21-7 advantage after a two-point conversion. Starzyk nailed a 23-yard field goal later in the third period, and Leavitt reached paydirt on a five-yard rush, increasing the LSU lead to 31-7 with 13:32 remaining in the game. Leavitt's 10-yard TD pass to tight end Trey'Dez Green stretched the margin 38-7 with 9:39 left in the final period. Leavitt threw for 344 yards, and Dilin Jones paced the Tigers' rushing attack with 66 yards on the ground. Linebacker TJ Dottery logged a team-best nine tackles, and defensive end Princewill Umanmielen recorded 3.0 sacks, increasing his season total to 5.0.

Up Next: vs. Texas A&M

After LSU plays Ole Miss in Oxford, the Tigers will return to Tiger Stadium to take on Texas A&M for the second straight season in Tiger Stadium. Kickoff is scheduled for 6:30 p.m. on ABC. Last year, the Aggies defeated LSU 49-25 on Oct. 25, in what was the final game of the Brian Kelly era with the Tigers.

LSU's Won 5 Straight SEC Openers

LSU goes into the Ole Miss game having won 5 straight and 7 of its last 8 SEC openers. LSU's last loss in an SEC opener came during the 2020 Covid season when the Tigers dropped a 44-34 decision to Mississippi State in Tiger Stadium. Prior to that, LSU lost to Mississippi State in 2017 in Tiger Stadium in the league-opener.

Kiffin, Weis and The Green Dot At Ole Miss....

Since the Green Dot (coach-player communications) became part of college football in 2024, offenses led by Lane Kiffin and Charlie Weis at Ole Miss scored 1,056 points and accumulated 14,190 total yards (92.61 passing, 4,929 rushing) over that span. The 1,056 points ranked second nationally to only Indiana (1,203 points), while the 14,190 total yards were the most nationally during that 2-year stretch.

... And Now The Green Dot at LSU

The Kiffin-Weis Green Dot success has continued at LSU as the Tigers are No.3 nationally in total offense with 586.0 yards per game and No. 4 in passing offense with 358.0 yards a contest. In 2 games, LSU has accumulated 1,173 total yards, the most in program history in two games to start a season. LSU has racked up 63 first downs – No. 2 in the nation – and is averaging 6.6 yards per play. The Tigers are averaging 89 offensive snaps per game, that's 26 more plays per contest than LSU averaged a year ago.

Kiffin's Team Had Most Rushing Yards In SEC Over Last 6 Years At Ole Miss

Lane Kiffin came to LSU having produced the most rushing yards in the SEC since 2020 with 15,490. Under Kiffin, the Rebels led the SEC in rushing in 2020 (210.6 yards per game) and 2022 (256.5) and finished No. 2 in the league in 2021 with 217.6 yards per game. Kiffin coached Ole Miss teams never finished lower than No. 6 in the SEC in rushing during his six seasons in Oxford. The Rebels were No. 5 in the league in rushing in 2023 (176.3) and 2024 (175.7) and No. 6 a year ago with a 176.3 average.

Rushing Attack Continues At LSU

The rushing offense that Lane Kiffin enjoyed at Ole Miss has continued at LSU as the Tigers are averaging 228.0 yards on the ground per game. In two games, LSU has rushed for 456 yards and 8 TDs. LSU is averaging 4.5 yards per carry. A year ago, LSU didn't get to 456 rushing yards until week 4 and the Tigers didn't score their 8th rushing TD until week 8 against Texas A&M. LSU's 309 rushing yards against Clemson in the season-opener topped any single-game rushing total for the Tigers a year ago.

Kiffin's Team Continues First Quarter Scoring Blitz

Lane Kiffin's teams have traditionally been fast-paced and quick to score and that has continued through 2 games at LSU. LSU has outscored opponents 27-3 in the first quarter this year. Going back to the start of his run at Ole Miss, Kiffin-coached teams have scored 10 points or more in the first quarter 37 times (in 76 games). Of those double-digit first quarter scoring games, 24 have come against Power 4 teams with 17 of those being SEC games. Since 2020, Kiffin's teams have led after the first quarter 47 times in 76 games.

Baker's Bayou Bandit Defense Making A Statement

Through 2 games, Blake Baker's Bayou Bandit defense has been dominant as the Tigers lead the nation in total yards allowed (142.0), sacks (12) and opponent first downs (16) and ranks No. 2 in rushing yards (18.0) and third-down conversion rate (4-of-27 for 14.8 pct.). Here are some highlights of LSU's defense 2 games into the season:

- Has given up only 284 total yards (37 rushing, 247 passing), the fourth fewest on record by an LSU team dating back to 1937. Others: 97 in 1937, 244 in 1958, 245 in 1979
- On 28 possessions by the opposition, LSU has forced 13 3-and-outs, had the opponent punt 16 times. LSU has allowed possessions of 5 or more plays only 6 times with 22 of the 28 possessions being 4 plays or fewer (11 by Clemson, 11 by Louisiana Tech).
- The Tiger defense has allowed the opponent to penetrate LSU territory just 3 times in 26 possessions that started on the minus-50. Of the 103 offensive snaps by the opposition, only 14 have come in LSU territory (6 by Clemson, 8 by Louisiana Tech). Six of the 14 snaps came on drives that started on LSU's side of the field due to a turnover.
- 7 players have recorded at least a half-sack and 13 players have been credited with a tackle for loss. EDGE Princewill Umanmielen leads the nation in both sacks (5) and tackles for loss (6.5).
- In first half vs. Clemson, held the Tigers to 1 first down, minus-4 rushing yards and 54 total yards as LSU built a 31-3 halftime lead.
- In first half against Louisiana Tech, held the Bulldogs without a first down and to minus-21 rushing yards and minus-1 total yards.

Center Braelin Moore Awarded No. 18

For only the second time since the tradition started in 2003, an offensive lineman has been awarded No. 18 as center Braelin Moore was presented with the jersey by four former No. 18s – Jacob Hester, Richard Dickson, Bennie Logan and Greg Penn - at a team meeting in late August. Moore, a fifth-year senior and returning starter, joins Lloyd Cushenberry, the center on LSU's 2019 national championship team, as the only offensive linemen to be awarded No. 18 since the tradition began with Matt Mauck in 2003. Moore will continue to wear No. 61 in games due to his position. The No. 18 will be represented on his jersey with a patch, similar to what Cushenberry did in 2019. Moore, in his second year at LSU, joined the Tigers prior to the 2025 season after transferring from Virginia Tech. A year ago, Moore started in all 13 games for the Tigers, earning SEC Offensive Lineman of the Week honors in the season-opening win over Clemson. He went on to play 623 offensive snaps, allowing just one sack all season. Off the field, Moore has twice earned conference academic honor roll status, first in 2023 at Virginia Tech and then last year with the Tigers. He graduated from LSU over the summer and will also wear an SEC Grad Patch on his jersey this season. The No. 18 is among the three most iconic numbers in LSU football history, joining retired No. 20 and No. 7. Billy Cannon – LSU's first Heisman Trophy winner – had his No. 20 retired following the 1959 season. Cannon's No. 20 is the only number retired in LSU football history.

About LSU's No. 18

When it comes to LSU football, the No. 18 is synonymous with excellence on and off the field. It's about having the respect of your teammates and coaches. It's about being a role model to those in the locker room and the kids who adore the Tigers. No. 18 is much more than a number, it's an identity that's been established by those who have worn the jersey. The No. 18 comes with the responsibility of being selfless and doing the right thing when no one is looking. No. 18 epitomizes LSU football and the longstanding tradition that makes the Fighting Tigers one of the most powerful brands in the sport. LSU's No. 18 jersey hangs in the College Football Hall of Fame and its story is told there. The No. 18 and the player who dons that jersey each year is LSU Football.

Weeks and Green To Wear No. 7 This Year

Standout linebacker Whit Weeks and dynamic tight end Trey'Dez Green will wear No. 7 this year for LSU. They were presented the jerseys by former LSU great and No. 7 Leonard Fournette at a team meeting on Aug. 26. The No. 7 jersey is one of three iconic numbers for LSU, joining the retired No. 20 uniform worn by Heisman Trophy winner Billy Cannon along with No. 18. The No. 18 was awarded to center Braelin Moore on Tuesday. The No. 7 is given to a playmaker, a relentless competitor with no quit in him. It's a player that others on the field look at to stem the tide, make a big play, and always leads by example. Weeks and Green have both carried those traits during their LSU career. Weeks, in his third season as a starter for the Tigers, has been one of the most productive linebackers in program history. He earned first-team All-SEC honors in 2024 after ranking No. 2 in the league in tackles with 125. In 32 career games, Weeks has tallied 205 tackles, 16.5 tackles for loss and five sacks. A permanent team captain in 2025, Weeks has earned SEC Defensive Player of the Week twice during his career. Green, one of the nation's most dynamic pass-catching tight ends, is a preseason All-America entering the 2026 season. In two years, he's already set the program record for career touchdowns receptions by a tight end with 11. Last year, he set the school mark for TD receptions by a tight end with seven. Worn by past LSU greats in quarterback Bert Jones and linebackers Trev Faulk and Ali Highsmith, the No. 7 tradition started in 2008 when Patrick Peterson joined the program and went on to be one of the most decorated defensive backs in school history, winning the Thorpe and Bednarik Awards in 2010. From there, Peterson handed the No. 7 down to defensive back Tyrann Mathieu, who went on to claim the Bednarik Award in 2011 after helping the Tigers to the SEC Championship and a berth in the BCS National Championship Game that year. From there, the tradition was born with some of the great players in LSU history wearing the number, a group that includes All-Americans in Leonard Fournette, Grant Delpit, Ja'Marr Chase, Derek Stingley and Will Campbell.

Football Smothers Clemson, 51-10, in Season Opener; Kiffin Era Debut

Quarterback Sam Leavitt accumulated 343 total yards and three touchdowns, and the LSU defense limited Clemson to just 145 yards and eight first downs, as the Bayou Bengals recorded a 51-10 win in Tiger Stadium. LSU improved to 1-0 on the season, while Clemson dropped to 0-1 in its first visit to Tiger Stadium. LSU defeated Clemson for the fifth time in the six all-time series matchups. LSU opened the head coach Lane Kiffin era by dominating the visiting Tigers, rolling up 38 first downs and 644 yards of total offense. Leavitt, in his LSU debut, finished the game with 230 yards passing and 113 yards rushing, scoring three touchdowns (two rushing, one passing). LSU's 38 first downs established a single-game school record, surpassing the previous mark of 35 first downs established in 1969 versus Mississippi State and tied in 2020 versus Ole Miss. Running back Dilin Jones also rushed for 113 yards, and he scored two TDs. Wide receiver Winston Watkins Jr. caught seven passes for 110 yards and one touchdown. The LSU defense featured the performances of safety Dashawn Spears, linebacker Whit Weeks and defensive end Princewill Umanmielen, who each contributed six tackles. Defensive end Jordan Ross returned an interception 30 yards for a touchdown to give LSU a 17-3 first-quarter lead, and he finished the game with four tackles, one sack, two tackles for loss and one quarterback hurry.
