Credential requests must be made as early as possible by the sports director of each media outlet and are limited to those media who will be attending the game in a working capacity. Media must approve the SEC Media Policy before requesting credentials. Due to the high number of applications, it is not possible to accommodate all requests. Accredited, working media will have first priority and all others will be on a space-available basis. Freelance media requests will not be accepted. No one under 18 years of age will be issued a press box credential or sideline vest without the prior approval of Ole Miss Athletics Communications. All credentials, both season and single-game, must be picked up at media will call on gameday. No credentials will be sent via mail.

PARKING: Gameday media parking will be located in the garage adjacent to The SJB Pavilion or overflow lot to the southwest of Vaught-Hemingway Stadium. Each pass is for a specific numbered parking spot. Cars parked in the wrong spot will be towed. Parking passes are digital and must be requested during credential application process. If a parking pass is requested and approved, a digital pass will be sent to every applicant via text message on the Thursday prior to gameday.

MEDIA GATE/WILL-CALL: Media will enter Gate 35 on the west side of the stadium beginning three hours prior to kickoff. The media will-call table will be located beside the elevators on the concourse level of The SJB Pavilion. Photographers may receive a vest at this location.

PHOTOGRAPHERS/SIDELINE ACCESS: All photographers must wear a photo vest in order to be admitted to the sidelines. This may be received beside the elevators on the concourse level of The SJB Pavilion. Gameday flip cards will be available there or in the photo workroom, which is located at The Grill at 1810 inside the Manning Center. Per NCAA rules, images or likeness of current student-athletes may not be sold, distributed or used for commercial purposes without appropriate consent.

SIDELINE ACCESS: Excluding select portions of the game, media sideline access is reserved for photographers/videographers. Credentialed photographers/videographers who arrive at media will-call without proper equipment will not be granted a vest for sideline access. When on the sideline, media must remain outside the bench area and may not shoot behind the benches. During pre-game activities, media must remain in the designated area, as posted in the photo workroom, until the team leaves the field after warm-ups.

OLE MISS HEAD COACH PETE GOLDING

Pete Golding, one of college football's premier defensive minds, enters his first full season as the head coach of the Ole Miss football program in 2026 after being named the 40th head coach in Rebel history on Nov. 30, 2025. Golding holds a 4-1 overall record while in charge in Oxford. As an assistant coach, Golding was on the sidelines for eight consecutive 10-win seasons, with his teams combining for a 96-14 (.873) record. Golding took over the program after three seasons as Ole Miss' defensive coordinator, where he helped transform the Rebels into one of the SEC's top defensive units and mentored eight NFL Draft picks. His defenses during his three seasons as DC limited opponents to 18.5 points and 330.8 yards per game while recording 31 interceptions, 27 forced fumbles and 19 fumble recoveries. Golding was immediately tested after being named head coach following the 2025 regular season, leading Ole Miss to its first-ever College Football Playoff appearance. The Rebels earned a first-round home victory over Tulane before defeating Georgia in the Sugar Bowl to advance to the CFP Semifinals, where Ole Miss' storybook season ended against Miami. Golding arrived at Ole Miss following five seasons as Alabama's defensive coordinator from 2018-22, helping the Crimson Tide win three SEC championships and the 2020 national championship. A native of Hammond, Louisiana, Golding began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Delta State in 2006 after playing four seasons at safety for the Statesmen from 2002-05.

LSU HEAD COACH LANE KIFFIN

Lane Kiffin became LSU's 37th head football coach on Nov. 30, 2025, following six successful seasons at Ole Miss. Kiffin went 55-19 in Oxford, leading the Rebels to six consecutive bowl appearances, four 10-win seasons and two New Year's Six appearances, including an 11-1 regular-season record in 2025. He owns a 118-53 record in 14 seasons as a college head coach. Prior to Ole Miss, Kiffin turned around a Florida Atlantic program that won nine games over the previous three seasons with two conference titles and two 10-win seasons. In his head coaching stops at USC, Tennessee and FAU, Kiffin has shown a propensity in helping turn programs around. Kiffin graduated from Fresno State in 1998 after playing quarterback for three seasons (1994-96) for the Bulldogs. He began his coaching career as a student assistant at Fresno State under Pat Hill in 1997 and 1998.

SCOUTING THE TIGERS

LSU enters the matchup with a 2-0 record after opening the season with wins over Clemson and Louisiana Tech. The Tigers are averaging 48.0 points and 586.0 yards per game while allowing just 12.0 points and 221.5 yards per contest. LSU has been particularly effective on the ground, rushing for 456 yards and eight touchdowns through two games, while the defense has recorded 10 sacks and 17 tackles for loss. Quarterback Sam Leavitt leads the Tigers' offense with 574 passing yards and nine total touchdowns.

WE'RE GOING STREAKING

Vaught-Hemingway Stadium has been a safe haven for the Rebels historically, owning a 315-116-8 (.727) record all-time in Oxford before vacated wins (293-113-8), including 37-3 since the start of the 2021 season. That also includes a current 13-game home winning streak since Oct. 26, 2024 and a 15-game home winning streak that spanned Nov. 14, 2020 to Oct. 15, 2022. That streak was among the longest home winning streaks nationally when it was snapped by No. 9 Alabama in 2022.

BIG LEG LUKE

K Lucas Carneiro has proven to be one of the most reliable long-range kickers in Ole Miss history, already establishing himself as the program's career leader in 50-yard field goals. Carneiro has connected on six field goals from 50-plus yards since arriving in Oxford in 2025, including a 57-yard field goal Saturday against Charlotte, breaking Caden Davis' previous Ole Miss record of four set. Even more impressive, Carneiro is 12-of-14 on field-goal attempts from beyond 50 yards in his collegiate career, showcasing his consistency and confidence from long range.

HOME SWEET OXFORD

Ole Miss has been dominant at home since the beginning of the 2023, and even more so during its current 13-game home winning streak dating back to a 26-14 win over Oklahoma on Oct. 26, 2024. In that span, the Rebels have consistently put on a show for the Ole Miss faithful, welcoming in a grand total of 1,588,204 fans through its turnstiles since the beginning of 2023 -- good for a capacity crowd per game average of 66,175.

OLE MISS IN SEPTEMBER

- Ole Miss is 174-94-7 (.645) all-time during the month of September after vacated wins.
- Ole Miss is 112-36-3 (.752) in September home games (including contests played in Memphis and Jackson).

LACY KEEPS SCORING

RB Kewan Lacy has found the end zone with remarkable consistency, recording at least one rushing touchdown in 11 consecutive games. The streak is the second-longest active streak in the FBS (Cam Cook, West Virginia, 15) and the longest such streak by an Ole Miss player in recorded history dating back to 1956.

REBEL DEBUTS

Forty-one players have made their Ole Miss debut so far this season: S Joenel Aguerro, DE Landon Barnes, CB Dorian Barney, WR Levi Blount, DT Michai Boireau, LB Tah’j Butler, WR Jontay Cook III, CB Dante Core, CB Jalyn Crawford, OL Carius Curne, DT Jayden Curtis, S Ant Davis Jr., RB Joshua Dye, OL Troy Everett, LB Luke Ferrelli, WR Horatio Fields, OL Emanuel Faulkner, RB Makhi Frazier, LB JaMichael Garrett, WR Darrell Gill Jr., OL Cooper Johnson, S Edwin Joseph, OL Tommy Kinsler IV, QB Deuce Knight, S Gerald Lacy Jr., RB JT Lindsey, DE Jonathan Maldonado, OL Kane Mankins, WR Jase Mathews, CB Iverson McCoy, K Peter McStravick, DT Jehiem Oatis, DT Jamarion Owens, LB Hayden Parker, TE Brady Prieskorn, S MJ Preston, DE Blake Purchase, DE Jordan Renaud, TE Michael Smith, LB Keaton Thomas and OL Enoch Wangoy.

EARLY TESTS, BIG STAGES

With the Rebels set to square off against No. 7 LSU on Saturday, Pete Golding will have faced a ranked opponent in five of his first six games as head coach at Ole Miss, including three top-10 opponents. Besides the Tigers, Golding has led the Rebels against No. 3 Georgia, No. 10 Miami, No. 17 Tulane and No. 24 Louisville, showcasing the challenging schedule Ole Miss has faced early in his tenure.

WHEN IT MATTERS MOST

Dating back to the start of the 2025 season, the Rebels have won seven of their last nine games decided by one score, including the 2026 season-opening 41-38 victory over No. 24 Louisville. Last season, Ole Miss went 6-2 in one-score contests, earning wins over Kentucky (30-23), Arkansas (41-35), LSU (24-19), Washington State (24-21), Oklahoma (34-26) and Georgia (39-34) in the Sugar Bowl. The Rebels’ only one-score setbacks during that stretch came at Georgia (43-35) and against Miami (31-27) in the CFP semifinal.

A SPECIAL WEAPON

When Lucas Carneiro lined up for a 48-yard field goal with only seconds remaining against No. 24 Louisville in the Rebels’ season opener, it was a moment that felt all too familiar. The fifth year native from Cornelius, N.C., calmly drilled the kick to give Ole Miss a dramatic 41-38 victory, adding another chapter to his growing reputation as one of college football’s most clutch kickers. It marked Carneiro’s third career game-winning field goal of at least 45 yards in the final 15 seconds of regulation, the most by any FBS kicker over the last 30 years. His knack for delivering in the biggest moments was already on full display during Ole Miss’ 2025 College Football Playoff run, highlighted by a game-winning kick against Georgia in the CFP quarterfinal. Even before arriving in Oxford, Carneiro had built a reputation for thriving under pressure, drilling a 50-yard field goal as time expired to send Western Kentucky to the Conference USA title game back in 2024.

A LONG HISTORY

The 2026 season marks the 132nd season of Ole Miss football, with the Rebels beginning play in 1893. Ole Miss holds a 734-552-35 all-time record on the field, 701-552-35 after vacated wins. The only interruptions in the program’s history came in 1897, when a yellow fever epidemic prevented the team from playing, and 1943, when football was suspended at Mississippi’s state-supported institutions during World War II.

LOADED WITH STAR POWER

Four Rebels earned spots among the top 100 players in college football in ESPN’s preseason rankings, led by quarterback Trinidad Chambliss at No. 5 and running back Kewan Lacy at No. 6. Chambliss broke out in his first season at Ole Miss, throwing for 3,937 yards and 22 touchdowns while adding 527 rushing yards and eight rushing touchdowns. Lacy set Ole Miss’ single-season records with 1,567 rushing yards and 24 rushing touchdowns on 306 carries. Defensive tackle Will Echoles, ranked No. 26, totaled 68 tackles, 11.5 tackles for loss and five sacks, while linebacker Suntarine Perkins, ranked No. 62, recorded 84 tackles, 11.5 tackles for loss and 5.5 sacks.

CALLING THE SHOTS

As Ole Miss prepares for its 2026 SEC opener, the matchup will mark the third game leading their respective units for offensive coordinator John David Baker and defensive coordinator Bryan Brown. Baker returns to Oxford for his second stint with the Rebels after serving as OC and quarterbacks coach at East Carolina from 2024-25. Brown takes over as defensive coordinator after spending the previous two seasons as Ole Miss' co-defensive coordinator and secondary coach. Both coordinators bring valuable experience to their new roles, as Baker was a member of the Rebels' staff from 2021-23, while Brown served four seasons as Louisville's defensive coordinator from 2019-22.

WILL POWER

Back for his junior season, defensive tackle Will Echoles continues his emergence as one of the SEC's top defensive tackles in 2026. Echoles started all 15 games in 2025 and finished with 68 tackles, 11.5 tackles for loss and five sacks while earning All-America honors from Phil Steele and first-team All-SEC recognition from the Associated Press. According to Pro Football Focus, Echoles led all Power Four defensive linemen in pressures (39) and defensive stops (35), while his five pass breakups tied for ninth nationally among defensive linemen. He capped the season by earning Sugar Bowl Defensive MVP honors after recording five tackles, 2.0 TFL and two pass breakups in Ole Miss' historic win over Georgia.

PORTAL POWER AT LINEBACKER

Ole Miss added two proven linebackers through the transfer portal in Keaton Thomas and Luke Ferrelli during the offseason. Thomas, who led the Rebels with eight tackles in the season opener, arrives from Baylor after starting all 25 games over the past two seasons and totaling 219 tackles, 14.0 tackles for loss, 3.5 sacks, two interceptions and two defensive touchdowns. A first-team All-Big 12 selection in 2024, Thomas recorded 103 tackles, seven TFLs and an interception in 2025. Ferrelli, who tallied five tackles and a sack vs. Louisville, joined the Rebels from California after earning ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year honors in 2025, when he started all 13 games and finished second on the team with 91 tackles while adding five TFLs, a sack and an interception. Together, the duo brings significant production and starting experience to the Rebel linebacking corps.

PERKINS EARNS 2026 CHUCKY MULLINS COURAGE AWARDS

LB Santarine Perkins was recently named the winner of the 2026 Chucky Mullins Courage Award. The award honors the late Chucky Mullins, who had his Ole Miss career come to an end during the 1989 Homecoming game against Vanderbilt when he was paralyzed after making a tackle. A native of Raleigh, Mississippi, Perkins becomes the 36th recipient in the 37-year history of the award. A member of the preseason watch list for the Bronko Nagurski Trophy, Perkins also earned preseason honors from the media members as he was selected to the preseason all-SEC second team.

Pete Golding was named the 40th head coach in Ole Miss football history on Nov. 30, 2025 following the regular season. He guided the Rebels to a 2-1 mark in the College Football Playoffs en route to a semifinal run and a 13-2 final record.

Golding took over one of the Southeastern Conferences' top teams of the 2020s after a brilliant career as a defensive guru in the SEC over the last eight years. During that span, Golding helped lead his teams to eight consecutive seasons of 10 or more wins, including a home record of 54-2. Since 2018, Golding owned an SEC record of 55-11, winning six College Football Playoff games, three SEC titles, a National Championship in 2020, while going 13-3 in postseason play. Since arriving in Oxford in 2023, Golding has orchestrated several dominant Ole Miss defenses, including a school-record pass rush in 2024, and with the Rebels he has mentored eight NFL Draft picks.

He was immediately put to the test as Ole Miss' leader during its first-ever College Football Playoff appearance just weeks into his tenure. The Rebels earned a first round home game in the CFP, a dominant 41-10 rematch win over 11-seed Tulane that setup another rematch for Ole Miss in the Sugar Bowl against Georgia. This time, the Rebels had destiny on their side, clawing back from a nine-point halftime deficit to cap off one of the most iconic wins in Ole Miss football history, 39-34.

In the CFP Semifinals against Miami, the Rebels and Hurricanes battled to the bitter end, but a late drive by Miami ended the storybook season for both Golding and the Rebels.

Golding — who owns nearly two decades of defensive coaching experience — cut his teeth in the SEC as a key member of Nick Saban's powerful Alabama squads as Saban's defensive coordinator from 2018-22, which included three SEC titles in 2018, '20 and '21, as well as a national title with the Crimson Tide in 2020.

During his time as Ole Miss' defensive coordinator since 2023, Golding has transformed the defensive mentality of the Rebels into one of the SEC's better units. In his Ole Miss career, Golding's defenses have stuffed opponents to just 18.5 points and 330.8 yards per game (210.4 passing, 120.4 rushing) while tallying up nearly three sacks and seven tackles for loss a game alongside 31 total interceptions, 27 forced fumbles and 19 fumble recoveries.

This season, Golding has mentored Ole Miss to one of the SEC's top pass defenses, yielding only 182.6 yards per game (SEC No. 3, FBS No. 20), while also ranking FBS top-25 in both fourth-down defense (ninth, .360) and scoring defense (25th, 20.1 ppg).

Golding had the unenviable task of replacing one of the greatest defenses in Ole Miss history, but his 2025 Rebels have been productive from both the transfer portal and high school ranks alike. Top returners and junior linebackers TJ Dottery and Suntarine Perkins lead the team in tackles, owning a combined 124 stops and 11.0 tackles for loss, but the underclass of powerful sophomore linemen Kam Franklin (6.5 TFL, 3.5 sacks) and Will Echoles (6.0 TFL, 3.5 sacks) — as well as team-leading transfer Princewill Umanmielen (7.5 TFL, 5.5 sacks) — has proven just as talented at causing mayhem in the backfield.

Golding put together one of the best all-around defenses in Ole Miss history in 2024, highlighted by one of the nation's most feared rush defenses and pass rush attacks. The Rebels led the nation in sacks (52) and tackles for loss (120), with both standing as new program records. The Ole Miss defense stifled opponents to just 80.5 rushing yards per game, which ended the season ranked second in the FBS and was the fewest allowed by a Rebel defense since 1966.

Ole Miss held nine of its 13 opponents to fewer than 100 yards rushing, six below 50 yards -- including a Gator Bowl record 44 yards allowed to Duke to close the season. Only two Rebel opponents broke 400 yards of total offense, while the Rebels held five to fewer than 300.

Leading the charge were first team All-Americans defensive tackle Walter Nolen and linebacker Chris Paul Jr., who were both among a seven-round NFL Draft record eight selections for Ole Miss. Nolen, the 14th consensus All-American in program history, was the first Rebel selected in the first round at No. 16 overall to the Arizona Cardinals, while other defensive draftees included cornerback Trey Amos (Round 2, Washington Commanders), defensive end Princely Umanmielen (Round 3, Carolina Panthers), Paul Jr. (Round 5, Los Angeles Rams) and defensive tackle JJ Pegues (Round 6, Las Vegas Raiders).

With the Rebels in 2023, Golding's new defensive scheme helped propel Ole Miss to its first 11-win season in program history. The Landshark D led the SEC and ranked fifth in the FBS in turnover margin at +11 and stifled SEC defenses, holding Arkansas (288), Auburn (275) and Vanderbilt (229) to fewer than 300 total yards in consecutive games -- the first such streak at Ole Miss within the same season since 1993.

Golding's squad was well-rounded, ranking within the top-35 nationally in sacks (19th, 2.7/game), TFL (29th, 6.3/game), passes intercepted (25th, 13 INTs) and scoring defense (34th, 22.1 PPG). Those 13 picks were the most by a Rebel defense since 2015, and the 35 Rebel sacks helped give Ole Miss at least 35 sacks in three straight seasons for the first time in program history.

The 2023 defense was led by three NFL Draft picks -- corner Deantre Prince (fifth round), edge Cedric Johnson (sixth round) and safety Daijahn Anthony (seventh round) -- as well as other returning stalwarts like defensive end and Peach Bowl Defensive MVP Jared Ivey, veteran safeties John Saunders Jr. and Trey Washington, and star freshman linebacker Santarine Perkins.

In his five seasons leading the Crimson Tide defense, Alabama ranked top-20 in the FBS in scoring defense every year and finished top-10 in either scoring or total defense four times.

The 2022 Alabama defense again proved to be one of the best in the nation, ranking ninth in scoring defense (18.2) and 13th in total defense (318.2 ypg). The Crimson Tide allowed just 4.6 yards per play last season, which led the SEC and ranked No. 4 nationally.

Two-time Bronko Nagurski Trophy winner Will Anderson Jr., anchored Golding's defense the last several seasons. Anderson became the first Alabama player ever to earn unanimous All-America honors after leading the SEC and finishing No. 11 in the country in sacks (10.0).

Alabama ranked fourth in rushing defense (86.0 ypg) and seventh in total defense (304.1 ypg) in 2021, while allowing just 20.1 points per game and holding opponents for a 31.1 percent conversion rate on third down, which was seventh nationally. Middle linebacker Henry To'oTo'o led the team with 112 tackles, while Anderson set the NCAA record (since 2000) for tackles for loss in a season with 34.5.

Golding's 2020 defense led the SEC in scoring (19.0 ppg) and got better as the season progressed, allowing just 15 points per game over the final nine contests en route to the national championship. The Tide ranked third in the league in total defense and rushing defense while the pass efficiency defense also led the league and ranked 18th nationally.

Golding's unit was devastated by injuries in 2019 and forced the staff into starting two true freshmen at the mike and will positions in the Tide's base 3-4 scheme. Alabama still managed a top-20 defense, limiting opponents to just 324.4 yards and 18.6 points per game.

Alabama's defense finished the 2018 season ranked third nationally in scoring (18.1 ppg) and 16th in total defense (319.5 ypg). The rushing defense was 19th nationally (121.3 ypg) while the pass efficiency defense ranked 23rd. Alabama also ranked 10th nationally in sacks per game at 3.0.

Prior to Alabama, Golding coached cornerbacks and handled defensive coordinator duties at the University of Texas-San Antonio in 2016 and 2017. Golding's 2017 defense at UTSA ranked seventh in the Football Bowl Subdivision, allowing just 287.8 yards per game. The Roadrunners finished eighth in scoring defense (17.0 ppg), second in first downs defense (166) and 19th in pass efficiency defense (112.19).

In his first season with the Roadrunners in 2016, Golding helped lead the program to six wins and its first bowl game -- the 2016 Gildan New Mexico Bowl. His defense set several school records, including single-season standards for tackles (934), TFLs (77), sacks (27) and QB hurries (38).

Golding joined the UTSA staff after spending two years as an assistant at Southern Miss where he coached the safeties. The Golden Eagles posted a six-win improvement in his second season, finishing 9-5 overall with a trip to the Heart of Dallas Bowl while winning the Western Division of Conference USA.

Prior to his time in Hattiesburg, Golding was the defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach at Southeastern Louisiana for two seasons (2012-13). He helped guide the Lions' program to a school-record 11 wins and its first conference title (Southland) since 1961 with a 7-0 league record.

Before heading to Hammond, Golding was the defensive coordinator at his alma mater Delta State from 2010-11, leading the Statesman to the 2010 NCAA Division II National Championship Game and the Gulf South Conference title.

He also spent three years on staff at Division II Tusculum, coaching the defensive backs while coordinating the defense the final two years as the Pioneers developed into a record-setting defensive unit under his direction.

Golding began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Delta State in 2006 after starting four seasons at safety for the Statesmen (2002-05). Golding graduated from Delta State in 2005 with a degree in business.
