KEY STORYLINES

BUILT IN THE DARK

- 'Built in the Dark' is the program's new cultural identity, signaling the beginning of a bold new era under head coach Jake Dickert.
- More than a mantra, 'Built in the Dark' reflects the belief that the effort no one sees creates the moments no one forgets -- a mentality rooted in preparation and discipline, and forged through connection.
- The identity aligns closely with Wake Forest University's transformational mission to prepare principled leaders through intentional effort, resilience, and purpose.

JAKE FOREST

- Jake Dickert was named the 33rd head coach of the Wake Forest football program on Dec. 18, 2024 and provided an immediate impact for the Demon Deacons, leading the program to nine wins in his first season capped by a victory over Mississippi State in the 2025 Duke's Mayo Bowl.
- The nine victories were most by a first-year head coach in Wake Forest history.
- During his time at the helm of the Washington State football program, Dickert accumulated a record of 23-20 (.535), reaching three bowl games in four seasons while also being nationally ranked each of the past two seasons.
- During his time on the Palouse, he trained 2024 Heisman Finalist and First Overall Pick Cam Ward and 2024 Manning Finalist John Mateer. He has also had nine players drafted to the NFL in the last four years alone.
- In Wake Forest's 2026 season opener, the Demon Deacons defeated Akron 38-16, as Dickert reached 10 wins in just 14 games at Wake Forest -- tied for the quickest a Demon Deacon head coach has reached the 10-win mark in school history.

MEET THE DEACON CAPTAINS

- Prior to the start of the 2026 season, Wake Forest football voted on six team leaders to serve as captains. They are:

- Gio Lopez, Quarterback
- Will Way, Center
- Matthew Lusardi, Tight End
- Langston Hardy, Defensive Lineman
- Aiden Hall, Linebacker
- Devaughn Patterson, Defensive Back

- Lopez and Way were two newcomers to the Demon Deacons in January, joining Wake Forest from North Carolina and Weber State.

- Before being at North Carolina, Lopez had a successful experience at South Alabama under current Wake Forest offensive coordinator Rob Ezell.
- Lusardi was a walk-on who has been with the program since 2022. During the 2025 season, he appeared on 111 snaps for the Demon Deacons with 87 coming on special teams.
- Hardy is in his second season in Winston-Salem after earning All-ACC honorable mention honors a year ago. He entered the 2026 season earning numerous preseason honors including being selected to the Chuck Bednarik Award Watchlist and the preseason teams for both Athlon and Phil Steele.
- Hall has been a member of the Demon Deacon program since 2023 and earned a starting spot as a junior in 2025, where he finished with a career-high 73 tackles to go along with eight tackles for loss and three passes defended.
- Patterson is a versatile player for Wake Forest and -- like Hardy -- has earned multiple preseason honors this season including being named to the Athlon Sports and Phil Steele All-ACC preseason teams along with a Senior Bowl Watchlist nod.

PLAYED TO THE VERY END

- The Demon Deacons are coming off a memorable double-overtime victory over Purdue in Week 2 action.
- Down to their very last play on 4th-and-15 in the second overtime period, Wake Forest quarterback Gio Lopez found wide receiver Carlos Hernandez for a game-extending 15-yard connection.
- Then, Lopez powered in for the game-tying touchdown before scampering in for the game-winning two-point conversion.
- Saturday's game against the Boilermakers marked Wake Forest's first double-overtime win in 12 years. The last time the Demon Deacons won a double-overtime contest was Nov. 22, 2014 against Virginia Tech (6-3). Wake Forest last played in a double-overtime game on Sept. 24, 2022 against Clemson.
- With the victory, Wake Forest is now 6-0 against non-conference opponents under second-year head coach Jake Dickert. In those six contests, the Demon Deacons have outscored opponents 219 to 99.
- The Demon Deacons have now started 2-0 for the fifth-straight season.
- With the victory, Wake Forest earned its second win against Purdue in the all-time series, as the Demon Deacons last defeated the Boilermakers 24-21 on Sept. 21, 2002.

NOTING THE DEACS

BROTHERLY LOVE

- The Demon Deacons have two sets of brothers on the defensive unit this season with defensive linemen Camden and Langston Hardy along with defensive backs Davaughn and Joshua Patterson.
- Camden has been a member of the Demon Deacon program since the 2024 season and has played 99 snaps combined during his first two years in Winston-Salem.
- He was joined in 2025 by older brother Langston, a UConn transfer who made an immediate impact on Wake Forest's potent defensive unit.
- Their father, Kevin, was a former No. 2-overall pick in the NFL and spent nine seasons at the professional level with the Jacksonville Jaguars, Dallas Cowboys and Cincinnati Bengals.
- Prior to being an All-Pro, Kevin was a two-time first-team All-Big Ten selection, a consensus All-American in 1995 and was named the recipient of the Dick Butkus Award, given annually to the top linebackers at the high school, collegiate and professional levels of football.
- Davaughn has been an impact player for Wake Forest, especially over the last two seasons.
- Now in year four in the program, he is joined by younger brother Joshua who played the 2025 season at Iowa State.
- While there, he played in four games with two starts for the Cyclones.

BALL OUT, CARLOS

- Against the Boilermakers, wide receiver Carlos Hernandez finished the game with six receptions for 88 yards. Hernandez is one of only three players in the country with 30-plus receptions for more than 700-plus receiving yards dating back to Nov. 15, 2025.
- Hernandez continued to be a big-play threat as evidence by his game-extending 15-yard connection on 4th-and-15 in double overtime.
- Against Akron in Week 1, The Alhambra, Calif., native tallied a career-high 148 yards after the catch.

HAVE A DAY, GIO

- Quarterback Gio Lopez rushed for the game-tying touchdown and the game-winning two-point conversion against the Boilermakers. He finished the game with three total touchdowns, 225 passing yards and a team-high 59 rushing yards. He was 16-for-27 through the air.
- Including his two seasons at South Alabama and the 2025 campaign at North Carolina, Lopez has been efficient against non-conference opponents as he's thrown for 2,060 yards with 18 touchdowns to just three interceptions. He has also added five rushing scores in those games.
- Over his first two games with the Demon Deacons, Lopez has thrown for 575 yards (62.7% completion) with four touchdowns and zero interceptions.
- He is one of just four players in the country with the above stats so far this season.

A SPECIAL MILESTONE

- With the victory over Akron in the second opener, second-year head coach Jake Dickert matched the program record for the fastest head coach to 10 victories, doing so in just 14 games following a 9-4 season in 2025.
- Dickert joined Hank Garrity to win 10 games in his first 14 games as Wake Forest head coach.

WAKE FOREST HEAD COACH – GAMES TO REACH 10 VICTORIES

RANK	HEAD COACH	GAMES
T1.	Jake Dickert	14
T1.	Hank Garrity	14

3.	Bill Dooley	16
4.	Pat Miller	17
5.	Jim Grobe	18

- In his five seasons as a head coach, Jake Dickert is a combined 5-0 in season openers while also being 13-2 combined in the months of August and September. In 15 games, Dickert-led teams have scored 560 points (37.3 points per game).
- Jake Dickert season openers:
 - o Sept. 3, 2026 vs. Akron W, 38-16
 - o Aug. 29, 2025 vs. Kennesaw State W, 10-9
 - o Aug. 31, 2024 vs. Portland State W, 70-30
 - o Sept. 2, 2023 at Colorado State W, 50-24
 - o Sept. 3, 2022 vs. Idaho W, 24-17

ON THE FRONT FOOT

- With the 22-point win over Akron, Wake Forest over the last 16 seasons has a 13-3 record in season openers including an 11-2 record in the College Football Playoff era (2014-present). Additionally, the Demon Deacons hold a mark of 12-1 in home openers during that same period with the lone loss coming to No. 1 Clemson in 2020.

A HOMEFIELD ADVANTAGE

- With record-setting crowds, multiple sellouts and the best student attendance in school history, playing at home over the past five seasons has given Wake Forest a huge edge. The Demon Deacons hold a 30-15 (.667) record in home contests since the start of the 2019 season, which included a program-record 11-game winning streak spanning from the 2020 to 2022 seasons.
- With 30 victories at Allegacy Stadium since the start of the 2019 season, Wake Forest is tied for the fifth-most home victories in the ACC over the last eight years.

THE BALL, THE BALL, THE BALL

- Over the past nine seasons, Wake Forest has a combined +22 turnover margin. This ranks 37th nationally over that time and fifth in the ACC.
- Only 2018, 2022, 2023, 2024 and 2025 seasons saw the Deacs finish with more turnovers lost than gained:

HEAD COACH JAKE DICKERT

Second Season

Jake Dickert was named the 33rd head coach of the Wake Forest football program on Dec. 18, 2024.

A college football coach for 18 seasons, Dickert has climbed the profession by gaining experience at every level of the collegiate game — from Division III and Division II to the FCS, Group of Five and Power Four. Alongside Baylor head coach Dave Aranda, he is one of only two current Power Four head coaches to have coached at every level, a journey that has shaped his leadership style, adaptability and approach to player development.

Throughout his career, Dickert has earned a reputation as both a winner and a consistent developer of NFL-caliber talent.

That reputation was on full display in his first season at Wake Forest. In the greatest debut campaign by a head coach in program history, Dickert, his staff and his players guided the Demon Deacons to just the fourth nine-win season in school history, punctuated by an emphatic 43-29 victory over Mississippi State to capture the Duke's Mayo Bowl at Bank of America Stadium. Wake Forest finished the 2025 season 9-4, marking the fifth time in the last nine years the program reached eight or more wins — one of only five ACC programs to accomplish that feat during the span.

With that, the nine victories in 2025 were tied for the most among all FBS and Power Four programs in the Carolinas.

Dickert surpassed Billy Dooley, who won seven games during his first season in Winston-Salem in 1987 and the 2025 campaign was highlighted by marquee College Football Playoff Top-25 wins over SMU and No. 12 Virginia — the Cavaliers' only home loss of the year — as well as a Big Four victory over North Carolina inside a sold-out Allegacy Stadium.

Defensively, the Demon Deacons were among the ACC's elite in 2025, ranking seventh in the league and 44th nationally in scoring defense while finishing top-six in the conference in both total defense and passing defense. Wake Forest did not allow a touchdown against either No. 12 Virginia or North Carolina during the season.

Individual success followed team success, as 12 Demon Deacons earned All-ACC honors in 2025. The selections marked the ninth consecutive season Wake Forest placed six or more players on the All-Conference teams, and since 2019, the program's 74 All-ACC honorees rank fifth-most in the ACC. Additionally, three Demon Deacons garnered All-America honors as senior tailback Demond

Claiborne and redshirt senior safety Nick Andersen were named honorable mention by Phil Steele and rookie kicker Connor Calvert was named a FWAA Freshman All-American.

Prior to Wake Forest, Dickert spent four seasons as head coach at Washington State, where he compiled a winning record and led the Cougars to three bowl appearances. His teams were ranked inside the Top 20 in each of his final two seasons, climbing as high as No. 13 in 2023. Over his final three years in Pullman, Dickert's teams earned two Apple Cup victories over archrival Washington, recorded ranked wins over No. 19 Wisconsin in both 2022 and 2023, and defeated No. 14 Oregon State in 2023. His program also posted an impressive 14-6 record in non-conference play.

Dickert's success extended to player development, as seven of his players were selected over the last three NFL Draft cycles. The three selections in the 2024 NFL Draft marked Washington State's highest total since 2005.

Since arriving at the FBS level in 2017, Dickert's defenses have forced 166 turnovers, a total that would rank tied for 10th nationally over that seven-year span. Among ACC programs during that period, only Clemson has produced more.

Excellence under Dickert has extended beyond the field as well. During his first three seasons as head coach at Washington State, 45 players earned Pac-12 Fall Academic Honor Roll recognition with a GPA of 3.3 or higher. His program also produced multiple AFCA Good Works Team honorees, Allstate Wuerffel Trophy semifinalists for community service, and semifinalists for the William V. Campbell Trophy, awarded to college football's premier scholar-athlete.

Dickert played college football at Wisconsin-Stevens Point from 2002-06, earning All-Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (WIAC) honors as a wide receiver during his senior season in 2006. He was named his team's

OFFENSE

Offensively, the season was highlighted by one of the program's most productive campaigns in recent years.

- The Demon Deacons scored 30 or more points six times and averaged more than 28 points per game, with both marks representing the program's highest outputs since the 2022 season.
- Wake Forest also generated 27 plays of 30 yards or more—its most explosive-play total since 2022.
- Individually, RB Demond Claiborne earned Second Team All-ACC recognition, while OT Fa'alili Fa'amoe, OG George Sell, C Devin Kylany and All-Purpose Chris Barnes were each named Honorable Mention All-ACC.
- The passing game featured a wide distribution of playmakers, with 11 different receivers catching at least one touchdown — the most for the program since at least 1975.
- Tight ends played an expanded role in the offense, accounting for 33 receptions on the season.

- Up front, the offensive line made one of the nation's most significant year-over-year improvements, allowing just 17 sacks after surrendering 42 the previous season, a leap from 125th nationally to a top-20 ranking in the FBS.
- Quarterback Robby Ashford delivered the best stretch of play of his career late in the season, throwing for 14 touchdowns over the final four games—the most in any four-game span of his career.
- His performance peaked in the Duke's Mayo Bowl, where he accounted for a career-high five touchdowns against Mississippi State.
- In the backfield, running back Demond Claiborne continued to etch his name into the Wake Forest record book, moving to fourth all-time in career rushing yards. Claiborne also became the program's all-time leader among Wake Forest running backs in career rushing touchdowns during the College Football Playoff Era and surpassed A.T. Perry for the most overall touchdowns in the CFP Era during the 2025 season.

Wide Receiver of the Year in both his junior and senior seasons. Dickert earned his bachelor's degree in secondary math education from UW–Stevens Point in 2007 and completed his master's degree in general education in 2009.

He and his wife, Candice, have three children: daughter Rylee and sons Jett and Jace.

2025 PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

Coch Jake Dickert's Inagural Year

DEFENSE

- Defensively, Wake Forest ranked among the ACC's elite defensive units.
- The Deacs recorded four interceptions and 11 fumble recoveries while showing marked improvement across every major statistical category.
 - The Demon Deacons allowed nearly 10.5 fewer points per game than the previous season, surrendered more than 100 fewer yards of total offense per contest compared to 2024, and nearly cut the number of passing touchdowns allowed in half.
 - Wake Forest also reduced red-zone touchdowns by nearly 20 percent.
 - Wake finished in the conference's top five in both total defense and pass defense.
 - The Demon Deacons allowed the fewest yards per play in the ACC, surrendered the fourth-fewest touchdowns overall, and held opponents to more than 100 fewer yards of total offense than the year prior.
 - That consistency was underscored by holding seven of 13 opponents to 14 points or fewer—the most such performances by a Wake Forest defense since the historic 2006 ACC Championship season.
 - The Deacons' defensive dominance was evident against top competition, as Wake Forest limited two ranked opponents—No. 19 Virginia and No. 25 SMU—to 14 points or fewer.
 - The Demon Deacons did not allow a touchdown in consecutive ACC games, holding both No. 12 Virginia and North Carolina without a touchdown in back-to-back conference matchups.
 - Individually, redshirt senior defensive back Nick Andersen earned First Team All-ACC honors. Defensive back Karon Prunty was named Third Team All-ACC, while linebacker Dylan Hazen, defensive end Langston Hardy, defensive back Davaughn Patterson and defensive tackle Jayden Loving each received Honorable Mention All-ACC recognition.

STADIUM NOTES

A NEW NAME FOR THE DEACS' HOME

- In June 2023, Wake Forest University announced a historic, long-term agreement with Allegacy Financial, a leading financial institution and a longtime, trusted partner with mutual deep roots in Winston-Salem. The new, multi-year commitment deepens Allegacy's existing partnership with Wake Forest University by establishing the home of Wake Forest football as Allegacy Financial Stadium.
- For more than 20 years, Allegacy has partnered with the Wake Forest family to advance the community's wellbeing. One example of this is the Allegacy Center for Leadership and Character at Wake Forest's School of Business. The ACLC accelerates the School's mission to develop leaders of character to serve the greater good through a proven track record of thought leadership, practical relevance, and partnership across Wake Forest and the broader community. Primary focus areas include creating and publishing new knowledge in top academic journals across the world, and integrating ethical leadership and character strengths into courses, academic programs, co-curricular activities, and faculty and staff development programs.

NOTABLE UPDATES OVER THE YEARS

2005 - The facade along the sidelines and south endzone were re-faced with approximately 89,000 bricks, specifically created for this project by Pine Hall Brick Company

2006 - FieldTurf surface was installed

2007 - McCreary Tower, which was built at a cost of $48 million, houses luxury suites, club seats, boxes for the University President, home and visiting athletic directors and print and electronic media.

2011 - A state-of-the-art video board to the South end zone was put in. The board measures 42 feet in height and 90 feet in width. It contains over 1.5 million pixels and 3,780 square feet of active video area.

2023 - Athletics installed new LED Lighting, Handrails Between Sections & Stairs on Deacon Hill and a new LED Videoboard on Bridger Field House.

PROVIDING THE HOME EDGE

- Wake Forest is an astounding 30-14 at home since the start of the 2019 season. The Deacs won a program record 11-straight contests from Oct. 2, 2020 until Sept. 17, 2022. Wake Forest's perfect 6-0 mark in 2021 is the program's first undefeated home record since 1979 and it is just the third time that this feat has been accomplished since its 1970 ACC Championship team.

HISTORY

ABOUT ALLEGACY STADIUM

After playing football in Groves Stadium since 1940, Wake Forest renamed its facility BB&T Field from 2007-19 season. Ahead of the 2020 season, it was renamed to Truist Field at Wake Forest. Now, prior to the 2026 season, Allegacy Financial dons the stadium's name.

Wake Forest began playing intercollegiate football in Groves Stadium in 1940 when the school, then located in Wake Forest, N.C., first dedicated a 20,000-seat facility by that same name on its original campus. When Wake opened its current facility in 1968, the school kept the Groves name.

The stadium was named in honor of Henry H. Groves, Sr., who passed away in 1985. It was his generous gift that made possible the construction of the original stadium, which would be the site of some of the finest moments in Wake Forest athletic history.

The Deacs played their final game in old Wake Forest in 1955 before the school moved to Winston-Salem. After several years of playing at Bowman Gray Stadium, the Deacs moved to Groves Stadium in 1968.

In 1957, the original Groves Stadium was sold to Wake Forest High School for the sum of $10 and became the home of high school football and other community events. It was later renamed Trentini Stadium, in memory of the late Tony Trentini, a Wake Forest football player and 1956 graduate, who later returned to serve as the high school team's coach.
